

Literature & Medicine MA

For both humanities and healthcare professionals. Compulsory modules: Narrative Medicine and Explorations in Literature & Medicine plus optional modules that cover illness, medicine and psychiatry in literature and film. Ideal base for PhD studies, a switch to medical careers or teaching, journalism and cultural arts.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS Minimum 2:1 degree in a humanities discipline with a literary component (eg English; modern languages; biblical studies); or a medical degree; or a nursing or a social work qualification; or a relevant equivalent qualification. There is a qualifying exam for those without minimum qualifications.

DURATION One year FT, two years PT, September to September.

LOCATION Strand Campus.

Shakespeare Studies MA

Taught with Globe Education, Shakespeare's Globe. Advanced study of the plays of Shakespeare and his contemporaries in this unique context. Optional modules include Shakespeare on film, global Shakespeares, Jacobean theatre; plus training in methodologies & editing. Destinations: PhD, arts administration, publishing.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS Minimum 2:1 first degree in English, Drama or an equivalent subject, or an overseas equivalent. You will be required to submit a sample of your written work on a relevant topic.

DURATION One year FT, two years PT, September to September.

LOCATION Strand Campus and Shakespeare's Globe.

Text & Performance Studies MA

Practical and theoretical exploration of the dynamic relationship between text and performance. Shakespeare, Jacobean, modern and contemporary traditions from Europe and the UK considered alongside current critical and methodological approaches to performance, theatre and theatricality. Ideal route to further practice and/or research for practitioners and arts/humanities students.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS A good honours degree in the humanities or arts, but appropriate experience in theatre can be, and is often, considered as an alternative. Candidates without a first degree or re-entering education from a professional context may be asked to submit written material/performance portfolio.

DURATION One year FT, two years PT, September to September.

LOCATION Strand Campus and RADA.

EUROPEAN LANGUAGES, LITERATURES & CULTURE

Classical Art & Archaeology MA

Core module: Undertaking Research in Classical Archaeology, plus choose from around 15 modules in Greek and Roman archaeology and art history and in technical skills: papyrology, epigraphy, palaeography; and over 30 modules from related programmes, including Greek and Latin language. Usually leads to doctoral research.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS Minimum 2:1 BA degree in Classics, Classical Studies, Ancient History, Classical Archaeology or a closely related subject, or an overseas equivalent. Some knowledge of Latin, Greek or another ancient language is a prerequisite. If you do not have a formal qualification in any ancient language you may still be considered if you take at least a basic course before the start of your MA studies.

DURATION One year FT, two years PT, September to September.

LOCATION Strand Campus, other University of London institutions.

Classical Studies Grad Dip

Ideal as a bridge to study at MA or beyond if you are new to Ancient History or Classics. Includes choice from 40 modules covering Greek and Latin: language acquisition, thought, literature, ancient history, art and archaeology and Late Antique and Byzantine Studies.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS A BA degree in a subject other than Classics, Classical Studies, Ancient History or Classical Archaeology.

DURATION One year FT, two years PT, September to September.

LOCATION Strand Campus.

Classics MA

Advanced study of the classical world, with special reference to Greek and Latin language and literature in one of the largest, most distinguished departments in the UK. Unparalleled resources and special links with cultural institutions and museums. Ideal training for doctoral research in Classics.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS Minimum 2:1 BA degree in Classics, Classical Studies, Ancient History, Classical Archaeology or a closely related subject, or an overseas equivalent. Candidates must be able to use authors and sources in one or more relevant ancient languages.

DURATION One year FT, two years PT, September to September.

LOCATION Strand Campus, other University of London institutions.

Critical Methodologies MA

Unique interdisciplinary taught programme focused on the study and applications of critical theory. Wide range of optional modules across humanities and social science disciplines. For students with humanities degrees to further knowledge and/or prepare for PhD study or careers in teaching, journalism, the media, arts.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS Minimum 2:1 degree in a humanities discipline, or equivalent. We may consider other qualifications if you can demonstrate relevant experience. The programme is run by the Department of French, but does not require any knowledge of French.

DURATION One year FT, two years PT, September to September.

LOCATION Strand Campus.

French Language & Culture PG Dip/MA

Unique online modular programme taught with the Modern Language Centre. Flexible, interactive format. Acquire an in-depth understanding of aspects of French culture; improve writing and language skills to reach near-native level. Ideal for careers in research, teaching, journalism, translating, interpreting.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS Graduates of French: minimum 2:1 and/or a minimum of five years' teaching experience of French at Advanced level; and/or native-level or near-native-level proficiency in spoken and written French, and previous qualifications/demonstrable ability in written analysis and argumentation.

DURATION One year FT, two years PT, up to a maximum of six years.

LOCATION Programme is taught online.

French Literature & Culture MA

Teaching based on research culture. Research methodology and critical theory plus a wide choice of optional modules from Medieval Occitan to Contemporary French Writing on the Visual & Cinema. Ideal preparation for research or careers in teaching, journalism, cultural management, financial sector and the EU.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS Minimum 2:1 first degree (or equivalent) in French or in a combined honours degree including French. We may consider other relevant experience or qualifications where appropriate.

DURATION One year FT, two years PT, September to September.

LOCATION Strand Campus.

German Linguistics MA

Taught with UCL and Queen Mary. Expand knowledge of linguistic theories, past and present, the diverse approaches and methodologies relevant to the field of German and linguistics language teaching. Essentially prepares for research; other careers include teaching, journalism and the financial sector.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS First class or 2:1 honours degree in German or with German as a principal component, or 'Staatsexamen', or equivalent qualification. Applicants who possess alternative qualifications obtained by written examination may also be considered.

DURATION One year FT, two years PT, September to September.

LOCATION Strand Campus; other University of London campuses; study abroad.

Greek Tradition (subject to approval) MA

Core modules examine the processes of studying and reflecting 4,000 years of Greek-speaking cultures; specialist modules offer an exceptional range of research-led study. Leads to careers in research or teaching, cultural management, general management, civil service or international business.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS A first class or good 2:1 degree (or equivalent) in a relevant subject at BA level is a minimum requirement. Graduates of universities in Greece or Cyprus should have a GPA in the BA of 7.5. The programme does not require prior knowledge of Greek, but offers the opportunity to acquire the language (Ancient or Modern).

DURATION One year FT, two years PT, September to September.

LOCATION Strand Campus, other University of London institutions.

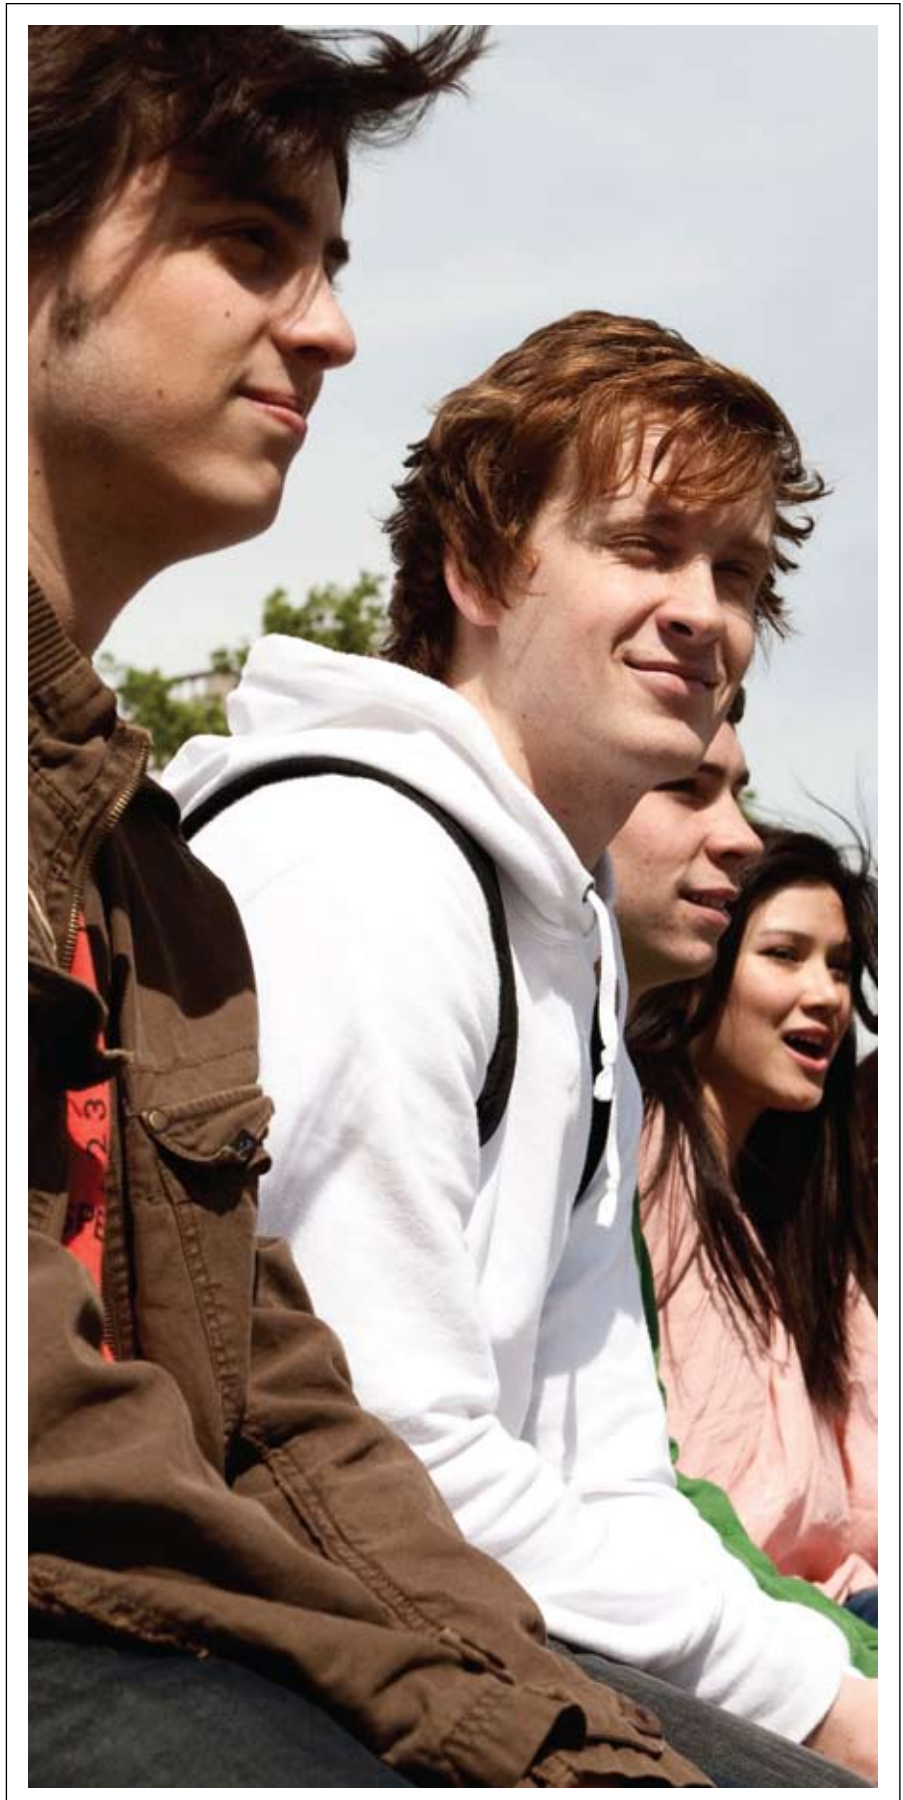

Late Antique & Byzantine Studies Grad Dip

Ideal for graduates in unrelated or tangentially related disciplines wishing to pursue work in this field. Study two compulsory modules including Greek or possibly Latin plus supporting options and a dissertation. Most students go on to take the MA.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS Minimum 2:1 first degree in a humanities subject. Graduates of universities in Greece or Cyprus should have a GPA in the BA of 7.5.

DURATION One year FT, two years PT, September to September.

LOCATION Strand Campus, other University of London institutions.

Late Antique & Byzantine Studies MA

Study core modules in Medieval Greek or Latin Language, Methods & Techniques, with further choice of modules taught at King's, Birkbeck, Royal Holloway and UCL. Leads to careers in research or teaching, cultural management, general management, civil service and banking.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS Minimum 2:1 first degree in a humanities subject with a significant element relating to classical antiquity or the Middle Ages. Graduates of Greek/Cypriot universities should have a GPA in the BA of 7.5. If you do not have a formal qualification in any ancient language you may still be considered if you take at least a basic course before the start of your MA studies.

DURATION One year FT, two years PT, September to September.

LOCATION Strand Campus, other University of London institutions.

Modern Greek Studies (Sociolinguistics) MA

Modern Greek Studies (History) MA

Modern Greek Studies (Interdisciplinary) MA

Modern Greek Studies (Literature) MA

Four pathways are available each with a different specialism. Unique combination of facilities for research and learning including premier collection of Greek publications in Maughan Library and the Centre for Hellenic Studies. Ideal for further academic study; work in civil service, teaching, journalism.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS You must possess an upper second degree from a UK university, or a GPA of 7.5 from a university in Greece or Cyprus, or an equivalent qualification, in: Modern Greek Studies or Linguistics (sociolinguistics pathway); History or Modern Greek Studies (history pathway); Modern Greek Studies, English Literature, Comparative Literature or Modern Languages (literature pathway); humanities subject (interdisciplinary pathway). For all students, a competent working knowledge of Modern Greek is required.

DURATION One year FT or two years PT, September to September.

LOCATION Strand Campus.

Portuguese Studies MA

Focus on a disciplinary or country-specific coherent programme by selecting modules from: Literature & Culture; History; Portugal; Brazil; Lusophone Africa. Provides training in basic theoretical concepts and research skills. Possible careers in academia, in Portuguese-speaking countries, human rights and development NGOs and journalism.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS A first class or good 2:1 degree (or equivalent) in a relevant subject at BA level is a minimum requirement. Although knowledge of Portuguese is not a prerequisite, we must ensure that you have the required linguistic ability for your course of study.

DURATION One year FT, two years PT, September to September.

LOCATION Strand Campus.

Spanish & Latin American Studies MA

For graduates in Hispanic Studies wishing to deepen and develop their knowledge and gain research training and experience. The programme covers Spanish literature, language, history and culture from medieval times to the present and Latin American literature, history and culture from 1492 to the present.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS Minimum 2:1 first degree in Spanish, Spanish American or Latin American Studies.

DURATION One year FT, two years PT, September to September.

LOCATION Strand Campus.

GLOBAL POLITICS

Conflict Regulation in Divided Societies MA

Research-led and offering comprehensive comparative study on the causes and consequences of revolution, civil war, conflict regulation and truth and reconciliation in divided societies from the Middle East to South East Asia and beyond. Broad choice of modules. Possible careers include the UN, EU, diplomacy, journalism and the City.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS Minimum 2:1 first degree, or overseas equivalent, in an appropriate subject, such as in history, politics, international relations or languages.

DURATION One year FT, two years PT, September to September. PT attendance flexible.

LOCATION Strand Campus.

European Public Policy MA

The programme provides conceptual and research tools for the critical analysis of public policy and a broad political and historical approach to European Studies. Attracts high-profile people to lead seminars. Ideal for employment in the EU, business, public service, research and teaching.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS Minimum 2:1 first degree or equivalent, in a subject relevant to the intended area of study (mainly European studies, politics, history, social sciences, law and modern languages).

DURATION One year FT, September to September.

LOCATION Strand Campus.

European Studies MA

Deepens understanding of contemporary European history, politics and international relations. Draws on the expertise of highly ranked departments and well-published, multinational staff; close international links with prestigious partner institutions. Ideal base for research and careers in European Union institutions, NGOs, business, public service, and teaching.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS Minimum 2:1 first degree or equivalent, in a subject relevant to the intended area of study (mainly European studies, politics, history, social sciences, law and modern languages). Students wishing to follow a country-based path must be fluent in either French or German.

DURATION One year FT, September to September.

LOCATION Strand Campus; dependent on pathway choice, second semester in Paris or Berlin.

Middle East & Mediterranean Studies MA

Expert interdisciplinary research-led teaching in the history, international relations, security, culture, languages and politics of the Mediterranean and Middle East. Broad choice of modules. Possible future careers include working in the United Nations, EU, diplomacy, journalism and the City.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS Minimum 2:1 first degree, or overseas equivalent, in an appropriate subject, such as in history, politics, international relations or languages.

DURATION One year FT, two years PT, September to September. PT attendance flexible.

LOCATION Strand Campus.

PHILOSOPHY, RELIGION & ETHICS

Bible & Theology MA

Teaching and research training in the theological context of biblical literature. Compulsory module, Theological Interpretation of Scripture, plus optional modules and dissertation. Interdisciplinary approach to biblical interpretation. Leads to research in the Department of Theology or careers in teaching, journalism or the church.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS Minimum 2:1 honours degree in theology, religious studies, related disciplines, or other relevant qualifications and experience. Applicants without experience in the field should consider our Graduate Diploma, especially designed to ease the transition.

DURATION One year FT, two years PT, September to September.

LOCATION Strand Campus.