

PASE Domesday: A brief case study, illustrated step-by-step

1. To find out who held land in Tottenham, Middlesex, select 'vill' from the first pull-down menu and enter 'Tottenham' in the 'Name' field and click enter. The table reveals that Earl Waltheof held it in 1066, and Countess Judith in 1086.

The screenshot shows the search interface with the following settings: Name type: Vill, Name: Tottenham, Landholder type: (empty), Description type: (empty), Description: (empty), Group map by: (empty), Size points by: Default. The results table is as follows:

1066 holder	Shire	Phil. ref.	Vill	1066 lord	1086 TIC	1086 subtenant	Fiscal value	1066 value (text)	1066 value (proxy)	1086 value
Waltheof earl	Middlesex	24:1	Tottenham		Judith countess	No subtenant	5.00	26.00	26.00	25.75

2. To produce a list of Earl Waltheof's landholdings in 1066, replicate the following search.

Historical note. Earl Waltheof was executed in 1076 for his part in a rebellion against King William the previous year. Countess Judith was Waltheof's wife and the king's niece. She ended up with most of Waltheof's estates and many more besides. She wasn't fondly remembered by Waltheof's supporters. This story is among those told in the 'Domesday' special.
