21.2 If the Parties are unable to resolve the dispute within 28 days of being escalated in accordance with Clause 21.1, the Parties will attempt to settle the dispute by mediation in accordance with the CEDR Model Mediation Procedure. 21.4 If the dispute is not resolved within 60 days after service of the ADR Notice, or either Party fails to participate or to continue to participate in the mediation before the expiration of the said period of 60 days, or the mediation terminates before the expiration of the said period of 60 days, either Party shall be entitled to issue proceedings.

22. ANNOUNCEMENTS

22.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of these Conditions, the Supplier shall not make any announcement relating to the Contract or its subject matter or its appointment hereunder except to the extent required by law or by any governmental or regulatory authority (and then subject to the notification obligations in Clause 11.3.3) without the prior written agreement of the University.

23. GENERAL

23.1 Entire Agreement

23.1.1 The Contract constitutes the entire agreement and understanding between the Parties in respect of the matters dealt with in it and supersedes any previous agreement between the Parties relating to such matters notwithstanding the terms of any previous agreement or arrangement expressed to survive termination.

23.1.2 Each of the Parties represents and agrees that in entering the Contract it does not rely on, and will have no remedy in respect of, any statement, representation, warranty or understanding (whether negligently or innocently made) of any person (whether Party to the Contract or not) other than as expressly set out in the Contract.

23.2 Force Majeure

Either Party may defer the date for performance of, or payment for, the Services, or delivery of, or payment for, the Goods, or to terminate the Contract, if it is prevented from, or delayed in, carrying on its business by act of God including but not limited to fire, flood, earthquake, windstorm or other natural disaster; act of any sovereign including but not limited to war, invasion, act of foreign enemies, hostilities (whether war be declared or not), civil war, rebellion, revolution, insurrection, military or usurped power or confiscation, nationalisation, requisition, destruction or damage to property by or under the order of any government or public or local authority or imposition of government sanction embargo or similar action; law, judgment, order, decree, embargo, blockade, labour dispute including but not limited to strike, lockout or boycott.

23.3.2 The Supplier may not assign, transfer, mortgage, charge, declare a trust over or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights or obligations under the Contract without the prior written consent of the University. The Supplier may only subcontract its obligations with the prior written consent of the University.

King's College London

General Conditions of Purchase of Goods and/or Services

- 23.3.3 The Supplier will be responsible for all acts and omissions of its sub-contractors (including without limitation any sub-sub-contractors) as though they were its own.
- 23.3.4 Notwithstanding Clause 11, if the University is assigning any or all of its rights under the Contract it may disclose to a proposed assignee any information in its possession that relates to the Contract or its subject matter, the negotiations relating to it and the Supplier which it is reasonably necessary to disclose for the purposes of the proposed assignment, provided that no disclosure pursuant to this Clause 23.3 shall be made until notice of the identity of the proposed assignee has been given to the Supplier.

23.4 Notices

- 23.4.1 Any notice or other communication given to a Party under or in connection with the Contract shall be in writing and shall be sent by email, addressed to that Party at such email address as specified in the Form of Contract or such other address notified by a party to the other in writing.
- 23.4.2 A notice or other communication shall be deemed to have been received one business day after transmission of the email.
- 23.4.3 The provisions of this Clause shall not apply to the service of any proceedings or other documents in any legal action.

23.5 Severance

If any provision or part-provision of the Contract is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall be deemed modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it valid, legal and enforceable. If such modification is not possible, the relevant provision or part-provision shall be deemed deleted. Any modification to or deletion of a provision or part-provision under this Clause shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the rest of the Contract.

23.6 Waiver

A waiver of any right or remedy under the Contract or law is only effective if given in writing and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default. No failure or delay by a Party to exercise any right or remedy provided under the Contract or by law shall constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of such right or remedy shall prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

23.7 Third Parties

A person who is not a Party to the Contract will have no right under the Contract (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any of its terms.

23.8 No Partnership or Agency

23.9 Further Assurance

Each Party to the Contract shall at the request and expense of the other or any of them execute and do any deeds and other things reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of the Contract or to make it easier to enforce.

23.10 Variations to the Contract

Except as set out in these Conditions, no variation of the Contract, including the introduction of any additional terms and conditions, shall be effective unless it is agreed in writing and signed by both Parties.

23.11 Time of the Essence

Time is of the essence for the performance of the Supplier's obligations under the Contract, both as regards times, dates and periods specified in the Contract and as to any times, dates or periods that may by agreement in writing between the Parties be substituted for any of them.

23.12 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

23.12.1 The Contract, and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims), shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales.

23.12.2 Each Party irrevocably agrees, for the sole benefit of the University that, subject as provided below, the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with the Contract or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims). Nothing in this Clause shall limit the right of the University to take proceedings against the Supplier in any other court of competent jurisdiction, nor shall the taking of proceedings in any one or more jurisdictions preclude the taking of proceedings in any other jurisdictions, whether concurrently or not, to the extent permitted by the law of such other jurisdiction.

2.2 The Supplier shall ensure (and it shall be a condition of the Contract that) the Goods (and any delivery, Installation or connected services so far as applicable) shall:

2.2.1 correspond with their description and any applicable Specification including the requirements of the ITT and Tender (as applicable);

2.2.2 comply with the express terms of the Contract and any implied conditions, warranties and terms contained in the Sale of Goods Act 1979, and/or the Supply of Goods and Services Act 1982;

2.2.4 not infringe the Intellectual Property Rights or other rights of any third party;

2.2.5 comply with all applicable statutory and regulatory requirements relating to the manufacture, labelling, packaging, storage, handling and delivery of the Goods (including any specific requirements as may be set out in the Specification) and provide all such reasonable assistance to the University to ensure that the University is not in breach of any such requirements and laws in relation to the Goods (including, without limitation, the Environmental Protection Act 1990 and the Waste Electrical Equipment Directive); and

2.2.6 subject to paragraph 7.2.5, be Installed and ready for the University to use as it anticipated as soon as possible following the Delivery Date.

2.3 All marking and labelling of the Goods (i) necessary to ensure safe and proper handling, processing, storage and transport and (ii) as particularly required by the University shall be carried out by the Supplier.

If the Goods are unavailable to the University due to any breach of this Warranty (or any other terms of the Contract) the period of the Warranty shall be extended by the period of such unavailability.

King's College London

General Conditions of Purchase of Goods and/or Services

- 3.2 The Supplier shall, without limiting the University's other rights or remedies, pay the University and/or be responsible for (as applicable) all costs arising from any breach of the Warranty, including any additional parts, labour and/or transportation costs arising as a result.
- 3.3 The Supplier shall comply with any response times for repairs to the Goods as notified in writing by the University and in the event of any failure by the Supplier to do so the University shall (without prejudice to its other rights and remedies) be entitled to the remedies set out paragraph 7.1.2.
- 3.4 For the avoidance of doubt, any alterations to, or attachments made to, the Goods by the University shall not invalidate the Warranty provided that the Supplier gives its prior consent.
- 4. SPARE PARTS AND CONSUMABLE SUPPLIES
- 4.1 Where specified in the Specification, the Supplier shall continue to make available to the University for a period of at least seven years after the date of expiry or termination of the Contract the Goods and any Spares.
- 4.2 The University shall be free to negotiate the price of Spares following the expiry or termination of the Contract except that if the Parties cannot agree on a suitable price within 10 Business Days of commencing negotiations, the prices of the Spares shall not exceed the prices applicable to the Spares at the date of expiry or termination of the Contract subject to an increase or decrease of such price to reflect the fluctuation in the consumer prices index for the previous 12 months as at the date of subsequent supply. These Conditions shall apply to any Spares supplied to the University under this paragraph 4.
- 4.3 The University reserves the right to procure consumables to be used on or with the Goods from the Supplier or such other source as the University may deem appropriate. The Parties agree that the procurement of consumables from a third party shall not invalidate the University's rights and remedies under the Contract, provided that the consumables meet the minimum standards published by the Supplier or the manufacturer of the Goods (or where no such standards have been published, the standards generally accepted as being applicable to the consumables).
- 5. DELIVERY OF GOODS
- 5.1 The Supplier shall ensure that:
- 5.1.1 the Goods are properly packed and secured in such manner as to enable them to reach their destination in good condition; and
- 5.1.2 if the Goods are being delivered by instalments, the Supplier shall clearly indicate the outstanding balance of Goods remaining to be delivered. The Supplier shall not deliver the Goods in instalments without the University's prior written consent. Where it is agreed that the Goods are delivered by instalments, they may be invoiced and paid for separately. However, failure by the Supplier to deliver any one instalment on time or at all or any defect in an instalment shall entitle the University to the remedies set out paragraph 7.1.2 and 7.1.3.
- 5.2 The Supplier shall deliver the Goods on the Delivery Date and to the Delivery Location.
- 5.3 Delivery of the Goods shall be completed:
- 5.3.1 if the Goods are to be Installed, on the completion of Installation of the Goods at the Designated Area; or

- 6.3 Risk shall revert to the Supplier whenever the Goods are within its custody and control.
- 6.4 In the event of rejection of the Goods by the University, risk of loss of or damage to the Goods shall revert to the Supplier upon notification by the University to the Supplier of such rejection.

7. ACCEPTANCE AND DEFECTIVE GOODS

7.1 Non-Installed Goods

- 7.1.1 Subject to paragraph 7.2, the University shall not be deemed to have accepted any Goods until it has had a reasonable time to inspect them following delivery, or, in the case of a latent defect in the Goods, until a reasonable time after the latent defect has become apparent.
- 7.1.2 If any Goods delivered to the University do not comply with paragraph 2, or are otherwise not in conformity with the terms of the Contract, then, without limiting any other right or remedy that the University may have, the University may reject those Goods and:
 - (a) require the Supplier to repair or replace the rejected Goods at the Supplier's risk and expense within five Business Days of being requested to do so; or
 - (b) require the Supplier to repay the price of the rejected Goods in full (whether or not the University has previously required the Supplier to repair or replace the rejected Goods); and
 - (c) claim damages for any other costs, expenses or losses resulting from the Supplier's delivery of Goods that are not in conformity with the terms of the Contract.
- 7.1.3 If the Supplier has delivered Goods that the University subsequently finds do not comply with the Contract (including, without limitation, the undertakings set out in paragraph 2.2), then, without limiting its other rights or remedies, the University shall have one or more of the following rights, whether or not it has accepted the Goods:
 - (a) to reject the Goods (in whole or in part) whether or not title has passed and to return them to the Supplier at the Supplier's own risk and expense (if practically capable of doing so);
 - (b) to terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Supplier;
 - (c) to require the Supplier to repair or replace the rejected Goods in reasonable timescales directed by the University or, upon the University's request, to provide a full refund of the price of the rejected Goods;
 - (d) to refuse to accept any subsequent delivery of the Goods which the Supplier attempts to make;

King's College London

General Conditions of Purchase of Goods and/or Services

- (e) to claim damages for any additional costs, loss or expenses incurred by the University arising from the Supplier's delivery of Goods that are not in conformity with the Contract.
- 7.1.4 The Universities rights and remedies under paragraph 7.1.2 are in addition to the rights and remedies available to it in respect of the statutory conditions relating to description, quality, fitness for purpose and correspondence with sample implied into the Contract by the Sale of Goods Act 1979.
- 7.1.5 These Conditions shall apply to any repaired or replacement Goods supplied by the Supplier.
- 7.1.6 If the Supplier fails to promptly repair or replace rejected Goods in accordance with paragraph 7.1.2(a) or 7.1.3(c), the University may, without affecting its rights under paragraph 7.1.2(c) or 7.1.3(e) respectively, obtain substitute goods from a third party supplier, or have the rejected Goods repaired by a third party, and the Supplier shall reimburse the University for the costs it incurs in doing so.

7.2 Installed Goods

- 7.2.1 For Goods that are to be Installed, Acceptance Tests shall take place after Installation of the Goods. The objective of the Acceptance Tests is to test compliance of the Goods with the Specification (and such other requirements as may be agreed between the Parties).
- 7.2.2 Within 10 Business Days of signing the Contract, the Supplier shall provide all such support and information which may be required by the University to enable the University to conduct Acceptance Tests.
- 7.2.3 Acceptance of the Goods shall occur when the Goods have passed the Acceptance Tests to the satisfaction of the University. As soon as reasonably practicable after the Goods have passed the Acceptance Tests, the University shall confirm Acceptance in writing to the Supplier.
- 7.2.4 In the event that any Acceptance Tests are not passed, the defects that cause the relevant tests to be failed shall be documented by the University and presented to the Supplier for discussion as to how the Supplier will rectify such defects.
- 7.2.5 The Supplier shall remedy all defects promptly in order to ensure that the Goods pass the Acceptance Tests on a retest and so that the Goods are Accepted as soon as possible after the Delivery Date but in any event no later than the Long Stop Completion Date.
- 7.2.6 If such retest(s) demonstrates that the Goods are still not in accordance with the Specification (or such other requirements as may have been agreed between the Parties in writing), the University may, by written notice to the Supplier, elect at its sole option:
 - (a) to fix (without prejudice to its other rights and remedies) a new date for carrying out further tests on the Goods on the same terms and conditions as the retest (except that all reasonable costs which the University may incur as a result of carrying out such tests shall be reimbursed by the Supplier) which shall not exceed the Long Stop Completion Date. If the Goods fail such further tests, the University may elect to proceed under either paragraph 7.2.6(b) or paragraph 7.2.6(c); or
 - (b) to accept the Goods subject to a reduction of the price of the Goods, such reduction to be a mutually agreed reasonable amount, taking into account the circumstances. In the absence of written agreement as to such reduction within 14 days of the date of the notice given by the University in accordance with this paragraph 7.2.6, the University shall be entitled to reject the Goods in accordance with paragraph 7.2.6(c); or

- (c) to reject the Goods as not being in conformity with the Contract, in which event the Contract shall (without prejudice to the University's other rights and remedies) automatically terminate.

7.2.7 For the avoidance of doubt, any or all of paragraph 7.2.6(a), 7.2.6(b) and 7.2.6(c) may be used at the University's sole discretion and do not demonstrate an escalation process to which the University must adhere. Further, such provisions are not the sole and exclusive remedy of the University in such instances.

8. INSTALLATION OF GOODS

8.1 This paragraph applies if the Supplier is carrying out Installation.

8.2 Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties in writing, the Supplier shall be required to undertake a visit to the Premises and shall:

8.2.1 issue an Installation Report detailing work to be carried out to prepare the Premises for delivery and/or Installation of the Goods. Such work shall not affect the Long Stop Completion Date. If the Supplier does not notify the University of any such work or requirements, the Supplier shall be deemed to have accepted that the Premises are suitable and shall proceed with delivery and Installation of the Goods; or

8.2.2 issue a certificate, stating that the Premises (including, without limitation, the conditions, layout, design and any other factors) are suitable and acceptable for the delivery and/or Installation or use of the Goods and proceed with the delivery and Installation.

8.3 The Supplier shall ensure that the Installation Report contains adequate information in sufficient time to enable the University and/or the Supplier (as applicable) to prepare the Premises for Installation, and enable the University and/or the Supplier (as applicable) to provide:

8.3.1 a suitable supply of electric current and such other mains services as may reasonably be required;

8.3.2 all other required electrical and mechanical items and fittings, as specified by the Supplier in the Installation Report and as may agreed by the University;

8.4 Where the Supplier has issued an Installation Report, the Supplier shall be required to re-examine the Premises upon the notification by the University that any work specified in the Installation Report has been completed (or upon the Supplier completing such work as applicable) and issue a certificate in accordance with paragraph 8.2.2, or apply the provisions of paragraph 8.2.1 as appropriate.

King's College London

General Conditions of Purchase of Goods and/or Services

- 8.5 Both Parties shall work together and cooperate in good faith to ensure that the tasks identified in the Installation Report are undertaken efficiently and effectively to ensure that the Supplier is able to deliver the Goods on the Delivery Date and to ensure that Installation and testing is undertaken to ensure the Goods are Installed and ready to operate as soon as possible following the Delivery Date but, in any event, by no later than the Long Stop Completion Date. If any such work is unsuitable for the purpose of the Installation as the result of an act, omission or default of one Party, then any costs which the other Party can demonstrate as being reasonably and necessarily incurred as a direct result of that act, omission or default shall be recoverable from the defaulting Party.
- 8.6 The University shall provide the authorised members of the Supplier's Team at all reasonable times and with prior agreement, such access to the Premises, (but not necessarily sole access) as may be necessary for the inspection of the Premises and for the execution of delivery and Installation. Provided that the University shall always have the right to refuse to admit, or order the removal from, the Premises of any members of the Supplier's Team or any other individual or acting on behalf of the Supplier who, in the opinion of the University (which shall be final), is not a fit and proper person to be on the Premises. Action under this Clause shall not relieve the Supplier of any of its obligations under the Contract.
- 8.7 The Supplier must take reasonable care to ensure that, in the execution of the delivery and Installation, they do not interfere with the operations of the University, its employees or any other contractor employed on the Premises.
- 8.8 The Supplier shall (and shall ensure that all members of the Supplier's Team shall), without prejudice to any other obligations to the University with regard to access to the Premises: -

 - 8.8.4 leave the Goods and the Premises in a clean and tidy condition at the end of each visit and upon completion of the Installation.
- 8.9 The work required of the Supplier to complete Installation shall be as set out in the Installation Plan. King's College London

General Conditions of Purchase of Goods and/or Services

- 9.2 The Supplier shall pay the liquidated damages on demand or the University may deduct them from its payments to the Supplier. Liquidated damages shall not be the University's sole and exclusive remedy for the Supplier failing deliver the Goods in accordance with Clause Schedule 1 and the payment of liquidated damages is without prejudice to the University's right to refuse to accept delivery of the Goods pursuant to Schedule 1 Paragraph 7.
- 9.3 The liquidated damages payments in Clauses 9.1 represents a genuine pre-estimate of the University's loss and do not impose a detriment on the Supplier which is disproportionate to the legitimate interests of the University in the enforcement of Schedule 1 and is without prejudice to the Supplier's obligation to fulfil its obligations under the Contract if it is reasonably able to do so.
- 9.4 The Supplier's liability to pay liquidated damages pursuant to this clause is subject to Clause 9.5.
- 9.5 The Supplier shall not be liable to pay liquidated damages to the extent that the same arises as a direct result of:
- 9.5.1 a breach by the University of any of its obligations under the Contract, or
 - 9.5.2 a Force Majeure Event,
- (each a "Relief Event"), provided that the Supplier provides the University with prompt written notice of the Relief Event and takes all reasonable steps to deliver the Goods in accordance with Schedule 1 with minimal disruption notwithstanding the Relief Event.
10. UNIVERSITY REMEDIES
- 10.1 If the Supplier fails to Install the Goods so that they are not accepted by the Long Stop Completion Date, the University shall, without limiting its other rights or remedies, have one or more of the following rights:
- 10.1.1 to terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Supplier;
 - 10.1.2 to refuse to accept any subsequent delivery/Installation of the Goods which the Supplier attempts to make;

 - 10.1.6 to claim damages for any additional costs, loss or expenses incurred by the University which are directly attributable to the Supplier's failure to meet such dates.
- 10.2 The Contract shall extend to any substituted or remedial services and/or repaired or replacement goods supplied by the Supplier.
