

Theatres of the Crimean War: Sound, Affect, and Media in the Production of Wartime

King's College London
Strand Campus
17-18 October 2014

European Research Council
Established by the European Commission

FRIDAY 17 OCTOBER (SWB 20, GROUND FLOOR)

2pm Arrival

2.30-5.30pm Session 1: Cosmopolitan War (Moderators: Roger Parker, Axel Körner)

Dina Gusejnova	Sympathy and Synaesthesia: The Cosmopolitanism of War Memory in 19 th -Century Literature
Alyson Tapp	Earwitness: Cognition and Narration in Tolstoy's Sebastopol Stories
Delia Casadei	A Voice that Carries
Flora Willson	Operatic Battlefields, Theatre of War

5.30pm Drinks Reception
Dinner (at Sagar; or participants to make their own arrangements)

SATURDAY 18 OCTOBER (SWB 20, GROUND FLOOR)

9.30-12.30pm Session 2: Mediations (Moderators: Martin Stokes, Rory Finnin)

Andrea Bohlman	Orienting the Martial
Nazan Maksudyan	Children as Refugees and Urban Poor in Ottoman Cities in the Aftermath of the Crimean War
Kevin Karnes	Who Sings the Song of the Russian Soldier? Inscription and Absence in the Baltic Theatre
Peter McMurray	The Revolution Will Not Be Telegraphed: Shari'a Law as Mediascape in the Crimean War

12.30-2pm Lunch

2-5pm Session 3: Sounds (Moderators: Stephen Lovell, Jonathan Hicks)

Holly Furneaux	Rhythms of Life: Music, Art and Domesticity in Soldiers Letters from the Crimean War
Gavin Williams	Figures of Distance: Hearing Crimea in London
Maria Sonevtsky	Tatarligim : Crimean Tatar Anthems, Indigenous Memory, and Wartime Loss
Hillel Schwartz	In Consequence: 1853-1856

5-7pm Concluding discussion, drinks
7pm Conference dinner at Sofra