Dear [REDACTED],

Request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“the Act”)

Further to your recent request for information held by King’s College London, I am writing to confirm that the requested information is held by the university.

Your request

We received your information request on 16 June 2022 and have treated it as a request for information made under section 1(1) of the Act.

You requested the following information:

I am writing to you under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to request some information.

Number of Polish Students enrolled at the King’s College London in the Academic Year 2021/22.

Our response

2021/2 Currently Enrolled Students
Nationality	Full Degree Courses	Other Courses	Total
Polish	418	74	492
Dual Nationality reported as Polish	57	13	70

Please note the following when interpreting the data: Data was extracted on 17 June 2022. Numbers above relate to students of Polish nationality, who are currently enrolled (2021/2) at the College on Undergraduate, Taught Postgraduate and Research Postgraduate courses.

This completes the university's response to your information request.

Your right to complain

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your information request or feel that it has not been properly handled you have the right to complain or request a review of our decision by contacting the Assistant Director of Business Assurance (Information Compliance) within 60 days of the date of this letter.

Further information about our internal complaints procedure is available at the link below:

http://www.kcl.ac.uk/college/policyzone/assets/files/governance_and_legal/Freedom_of_Information_Policy_updated_Oct_%202011.pdf

In the event that you are not content with the outcome of your complaint you may apply to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the internal complaints procedure provided by King's College London.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted at the following address:

The Information Commissioner's Office
