- 3.1.2 the Course Information;
- 3.1.3 the Academic Regulations; and
- 3.1.4 our Policies and Procedures and Codes.

form the contract between You and King's in relation to your Course (the "Contract").

3.2 In the event of any conflict between a provision in these Terms and Conditions and the other documents forming part of the Contract, these Terms and Conditions shall take precedence.

3.3 The Contract is subject to these Terms and Conditions and is created once You receive the Written Confirmation.

4. APPLICATION AND ADMISSION

4.1 Application

4.1.1 To apply for a place on a Course, You must take the following steps:

- (a) complete and submit an online application form (please click here and select a programme which will direct You to the online application form);
- (b) depending on the level of the course You apply for, You may be required to undertake a language level assessment;
- (c) upon completion of the language level assessment, if You are required to pay tuition fees, we will email You with details of how You make payment; and
- (d) we will then allocate You to a language module which is suitable for your language level and a timetable, and send You your Written Confirmation, confirming your place on the Course.

4.1.2 You must satisfy all necessary legal and other requirements, as set out in Sections 4.1 and 4.2, to secure your place on your Course.

- 4.1.3 If You are paying to study your Course, You must make full payment of your tuition fees and any applicable Sales Tax. Further details of the tuition fees, and how to make payment are set out in Section 10. Further information in relation to Sales Tax can be found here.
- 4.1.4 Applications for Courses are reviewed and processed on a first-come, first-served basis, with priority given to King's students (if applicable). If no suitable group is found, your second and third language choices (if applicable) will be considered. If no suitable group is found, we will withdraw your application.
- 4.1.5 You are responsible for ensuring that the level of Course which You apply for is appropriate for You.
- 4.1.6 We reserve the right to refuse your application for a Course if You apply after the second lesson of the Course has taken place.
- 4.1.7 If we are unable to accept your application (for example, the Course You have applied to is full) we will inform You in writing and will refund You in full any tuition fees paid to date.
- 4.1.8 It is important that You provide accurate information in your application to study at King's. If it is later found that your application includes false, fraudulent (including fraudulent payment), or misleading information or material omissions, then we may withdraw You from your Course.
- 4.1.9 King's may refuse to enrol You or withdraw You from your Course for any failure to comply with the terms of any requirements (whether imposed by legislation or regulatory requirement, or otherwise reasonably required by King's) that your studies require. Examples of why King's may refuse to enrol You or withdraw You from your Course are (without limitation):-
- (a) You owe any outstanding fees to King's;
  - (b) You fail to declare all your previous experience and qualifications in the chosen language in your application;
  - (c) You have previously failed a language module at King's or are requesting to repeat a Course that You have already studied at King's;
  - (d) You previously studied a language module at King's and failed to attend the minimum number of classes;
  - (e) You fail to provide a satisfactory criminal record/Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check;
  - (f) You fail to pass an occupational health check (subject to King's obligations under the Equality Act 2010 in respect of students with disabilities); and/or
  - (g) You fail to demonstrate that You have the correct immigration permission to study in the UK, or fail to comply with any immigration conditions.
- 4.1.10 King's aims to offer a high-quality admissions service. However, it recognises that students may at times have cause for complaint in relation to the admissions service. KCL's Admissions Policy explains how students can make a complaint, the circumstances in which a complaint can be made and how it will be investigated.

4.2 Visa requirements

- 4.2.1 All students registered at King's must have permission to study in the UK throughout their Course, regardless of which country they are from. You will need to provide original evidence of your permission to study in the UK at the point of enrolment. We may also request a copy of such evidence during the application process.

- 4.2.2 King's is required by law to verify that You have immigration permission to study in the UK. If You are subject to UK immigration control, and where the UK government requires us to obtain it, You will need to provide original evidence of your valid immigration status confirming that You have permission to study in the UK at the point of registration. The acceptable evidence of your valid immigration status is typically an electronic status check using the UK government's 'View and Prove' online service, which requires You to provide a valid Share Code. In some cases, alternative evidence may be required, such as a visa endorsement in a passport, an immigration officer's stamp obtained at the UK border, or other official documentation issued by the UK Home Office. If your immigration permission is a Visa allowing your entry to the UK, your evidence will need to be provided along with proof of your arrival date in the UK (which must be later than the start date of your Visa). You will also be required to provide your contact details (including UK address (where relevant), home telephone number and/or mobile telephone number). We will also request a copy of such evidence during the application process. If You are subject to UK immigration control, You will need to continue to hold valid immigration status confirming that You have permission to study throughout your Course and we will require evidence from You. Such evidence must be provided at the start of each academic year. If You hold limited permission to remain or stay which is due to expire during your Course, You will be required to demonstrate to us that You have obtained further permission to remain or stay or, where relevant, Indefinite Leave to Remain or Settlement. If You fail to provide such evidence to us within a reasonable timeframe, we reserve the right to prevent You from registering on your Course or withdraw You from your Course (as set out in Sections 4.1.9 and 12.1).
- 4.2.3 If You require a Visa to study at King's it is your responsibility to obtain the appropriate Visa before starting your Course. By agreeing to these Terms and Conditions, You also agree to abide by the terms and conditions of your Visa throughout your Course. Failure to abide by conditions of stay may lead to a withdrawal. Information on conditions of stay relevant to your particular immigration status can be found on the Government's Visa and Immigration website. The terms and conditions of your Visa take precedence over these Terms and Conditions to the extent that there is any inconsistency between them.
- 4.2.4 If You need to be sponsored under the Points Based System as a Student, subject to our assessment, King's may issue You with a Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies ("CAS"), but King's is under no legal obligation to do so.
- 4.2.5 If King's sponsors You under the Student Visa route, You agree to comply with the conditions of your stay in the UK and You agree to make relevant notifications to King's. King's complies with UKVI's rules for Sponsor Licence holders and is required to provide UKVI with information about students it sponsors, including failure to register on the nominated course, failure to engage or attend classes without permission, any concerns about students working illegally in the UK or who are otherwise breaching their conditions of stay. You agree to King's providing UKVI with any information required pursuant to King's status as a Sponsor Licence holder, or as otherwise requested by UKVI or any other government organisation in relation to UK immigration control. You must inform King's immediately if there are any changes whatsoever to your details or immigration status at any time before or after registration, and during your Course.
- 4.2.6 On occasion, King's may need to contact UKVI to clarify details on outstanding Visa applications and previous immigration history. Any such contact or related sharing with UKVI of your Personal Data will be carried out in accordance with the Data Protection Legislation. Please refer to King's Data Protection Policy for more information about how King's processes your Personal Data.
- 4.2.7 Non-compliance with the conditions of your Visa could also result in the cancellation of your Visa, fines and/or a ban on entry to the UK by the UK government.
- 4.2.8 Many categories of Visa are subject to restrictions on the right to work. In particular, undertaking self-employed work in the UK while holding status under the Student Visa route is not permitted. As a licensed sponsor, King's has a duty to notify UKVI if we become aware of any instances of our sponsored students breaching the conditions of their immigration status. Examples include prohibited self-employment activity, and work in excess of the number of permitted hours per week. Any such reports are likely to lead to the cancellation of the Student Visa.

- 4.2.9 If You lack the required permission to study in the UK, or You fail to demonstrate that You have the correct immigration permission, or to comply with any immigration conditions, King's may: refuse to admit, enrol, or re-enrol You, or may, on written notice, withdraw your Visa sponsorship or suspend or terminate your studies (as set out in Sections 4.1.9 and 12.1). If your application or enrolment on the Course is withdrawn, King's refuses to register You, your registration is terminated or if You choose to withdraw from your studies, this could affect the validity of your Visa and your ability to enter, study, work and/or remain in the United Kingdom.
- 4.2.10 Where a sponsored Student takes a Leave of Absence, King's may be required to report the Leave of Absence to UKVI, which may lead to the cancellation of their Visa. Sponsored Students in this case will be required to obtain a new Visa or other immigration status, at their own expense, before returning to King's following their Leave of Absence.
- 4.2.11 For the avoidance of doubt, King's is not responsible for You meeting the conditions of the Graduate route. King's shall not be responsible for any changes to the UK Immigration Rules which result in You no longer being eligible to study at King's.

4.3 Disabled applicants and students

- 4.3.1 King's is committed to a positive student experience by creating an inclusive environment for learning. King's complies with its anticipatory duty under the Equality Act 2010 by considering the needs of students at all stages of the student life cycle. It aims to reduce the need for individual adjustments by creating an inclusive environment for students to learn and succeed.
- 4.3.2 King's endeavours to offer an environment that encourages positive sharing but also acknowledges that it is the individual's decision whether to share or not. We encourage students to share any disability at the earliest opportunity and ideally on application. If You provide details of a disability support need in your application form, King's will contact You and You will be encouraged to register with Disability Support and Inclusion. Students who choose not to share at the application stage or whose disability occurs during their studies are encouraged to share at any time thereafter. Students who identify that they have disability-related support needs are strongly encouraged to discuss these with the Disability Support and Inclusion Service at the earliest opportunity so that they are aware of the support available.

4.4 Criminal offences

- 4.4.1 If You are convicted of a criminal offence whilst You are enrolled as a student at King's, You are required to inform your faculty in accordance with the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

You shall be liable for any currency exchange losses and / or bank handling fees incurred by King's as a result of returning funds to You.
- 10.4.11 Where a debit or credit card payment received by King's is subsequently disputed by the cardholder and King's agrees to return the funds back to the payer, if there is a tuition fee balance owing, You will be required to make payment to King's immediately.
- 10.4.12 King's reserves the right to withdraw You from your Course where any payment made by You to King's is reported to King's by the card acquirer as being fraudulent.
- 10.4.13 King's reserves the right to charge an administration fee of £25 in respect of chargebacks/disputed debit or credit card payments received from the King's card acquirer.

10.5 Non-payment or late payment of tuition fees

- 10.5.1 If You do not pay your tuition fees or any applicable Sales Tax in accordance with the payment terms set out in these Terms and Conditions King's will send You a written notification requesting that You make payment within 42 days. If You fail to pay by the date specified in the written notification one or more of the following may happen:-

10.5.2 For further information on the process and consequences of late payment, please see here.

10.5.3 Please see here if You are having difficulties paying on time and need further help and advice.

10.5.4 If You are suspended from participation on your Course, You may be excluded from attending lectures, classes or seminars, using our facilities or services, submitting assessments, taking tests/examinations, applying for another language course, or proceeding to any degree, diploma or other award of King's at our reasonable discretion.

10.5.5 A student who is suspended under Section 10.5.1 above and does not pay their outstanding tuition fees (if applicable) and/or applicable Sales Tax within 30 days of the date of their suspension may have their King's registration cancelled.

10.5.6 Students whose registration at King's is cancelled under Section 10.5.4 above remain liable for payment of any outstanding fees. Students who subsequently pay the outstanding fees must re-register for their Course. Acceptance onto the Course and accreditation of previous study will be subject to King's admissions requirements (as set out in the Academic Regulations) applicable at the time of re-application.

10.6 Tuition fee variations

10.6.1 Details of your tuition fees and any applicable Sales Tax will be set out in the Course Information.

10.6.2 During your Course, if King's has determined that your Course is subject to Sales Tax in your country of residence, we reserve the right to pass on any such Sales Tax to You. King's also reserves the right to pass on any change in the rate of Sales Tax to You.

10.6.3 King's will give affected students as much notice as reasonably possible of any liability for Sales Tax or a change in the rate of Sales Tax. Further information on Goods and Sales Tax can be found here.

10.6.4 If King's notifies You that You are liable for Sales Tax during your Course, or the rate of Sales Tax will be increasing and You are unhappy with the increased fees, You may end your Contract with us provided that You inform languagecentreinternal@kcl.ac.uk or in writing no later than two weeks of King's notifying You of the increase. The effect of ending your Contract is that You will not incur fees for the remainder of your Course and your studies with King's will terminate. You will remain liable for any fees incurred up to the date before the fee increase takes effect. If your studies are interrupted or suspended for any reason, the fees when You begin or resume your studies may have increased, on the basis set out above.

11. LESSON CANCELLATIONS

- 11.1 If we need to cancel a lesson of your Course, we will notify You as soon as practicable by email and/or text message.
- 11.2 If just one lesson of a Course is cancelled by us, we will endeavour to offer a replacement lesson. If we have to cancel at least two lessons You will be entitled to a pro rata refund for the cancelled lessons if You paid tuition fees for your Course.
- 11.3 Single lesson cancellations are not considered to be changes to the day or time of a Course.

12. KING'S CANCELLATION RIGHTS

- 12.1 Subject to us complying with the Academic Regulations and Policies, Procedures and Codes we may cancel the Contract at any time with immediate effect by giving You written notice if:-
  - 12.1.1 it comes to our attention that You have failed to meet or no longer meet the entry requirements for your Course (including by way of us discovering that You have falsified your qualifications or your application contains material inaccuracies or fraudulent information, or that significant information has been omitted from your application form);
  - 12.1.2 You are required to pay tuition fees for your Course, and You do not pay your tuition fees, applicable Sales Tax or Additional Costs within 30 days of us notifying You that your fees are outstanding;
  - 12.1.3 You do not attend the first 2 weeks of your Course (unless otherwise agreed by King's) or You have mitigating circumstances;
  - 12.1.4 we lose our right for the purposes of relevant legislation or regulatory requirements to provide your Course to You;
  - 12.1.5 a Force Majeure Event prevents us from providing your Course for longer than eight (8) weeks (whichever is shorter);
  - 12.1.6 You have failed to meet the requirements of your Course or fail to make sufficient academic progress, as set out in the Academic Regulations or Policies, Procedures and Codes (including, without limitation, in respect of your attendance or academic results);
  - 12.1.7 You are found guilty of a serious breach of the Academic Regulations and/or our Policies, Procedures and Codes at a disciplinary hearing;
  - 12.1.8 You break the Contract in any material way, and, where that situation is capable of being corrected, You do not correct it within 14 days of us asking You to do so; or
  - 12.1.9 You do not meet your obligations as a sponsored Student or You no longer have immigration permission to study in the United Kingdom.
- 12.2 If we cancel the Contract in accordance with Section 12.1, You may be charged pro rata tuition fees and any applicable Sales Tax up to the date of termination. We will invoice You for any outstanding tuition fees and any applicable Sales Tax, which will be payable within 14 days of the date of invoice. Upon your request, we will refund any tuition fees and applicable Sales Tax which You have overpaid (if, for example, You have paid your tuition fees and any applicable Sales Tax in advance) within 14 days of the date of termination. Further details on how You request a refund will be set out in the invoice You receive.

- 12.3 If the Contract has been terminated (for any reason), You will no longer be entitled to attend lectures, classes or seminars, use our facilities or services, submit assessments, take tests/examinations, apply for another language course, or proceed to any degree, diploma or other award of King's.

13. YOUR CANCELLATION RIGHTS AND WITHDRAWAL

- 13.1 You have the right to cancel the Contract and your acceptance of a place at King's for any reason during a 14-day cancellation period (the "Cancellation Period"), which will start on the day your Course commences.
- 13.2 To cancel the Contract and withdraw from your Course, You must clearly inform us in writing of your decision to cancel before the Cancellation Period has expired. You can do this by:
- 13.2.1 contacting the King's Language Centre by email (at languagecentreinternal@kcl.ac.uk); or
- 13.2.2 using the Cancellation Form but You do not have to use the model form.
- 13.3 Subject to Section 13.4, if You cancel the Contract within the Cancellation Period, we will reimburse any tuition fee and applicable Sales Tax payment received from You as soon as we can, and no later than 14 days after the day on which You informed us of your decision to cancel the Contract. We will make the reimbursement using the same means of payment as You used for the initial transaction, unless You have expressly agreed otherwise. You will not incur any fees as a result of the reimbursement (except for any exchange rate differences).
- 13.4 If your Course is due to begin within 14 days from the date You receive your Written Confirmation, You are expressly agreeing that the Course should begin within the Cancellation Period. If You then decide to withdraw from your Course within the Cancellation Period You may be liable to pay a proportion of your tuition fees and any applicable Sales Tax, as set out in Section 13.5 below.
- 13.5 If You withdraw from your Course during the Cancellation Period (but have received teaching during the Cancellation Period) or after the Cancellation Period has expired, your fees will be revised based on the date You withdraw, as set out in the table below:

Date of withdrawal	Tuition fees due
During the Cancellation Period	No tuition fees due, and any tuition fees paid will be refunded in full (minus any deduction for teaching received during the Cancellation Period).
After the end of the Cancellation Period and up to day 1 of week 6 (or week 3 if a One Semester Module)	25% of the total tuition fees
From day 1 of week 6 and up to day 1 of week 11 (or from day 1 of week 3 and up to week 5 if a One Semester Module)	50% of the total tuition fees
From day 1 of week 11 and up to day 1 of week 16 (or from day 1 of week 5 and up to day 1 of week 8 if a One Semester Module)	75% of the total tuition fees
From day 1 of week 16 up to the last day of week 20 (or from day 1 of week 8 up to the end of week 10 if a One Semester Module).	No refund will be offered

- 13.6 We do not offer refunds for lessons which take place on the advertised day and time but which You do not attend or are unable to attend because of unforeseen changes in your circumstances.

14. KING'S OBLIGATIONS TO STUDENTS

14.1 Changes to Academic Regulations, Policies, Procedures and Codes

- 14.1.1 During your Course, we may update and replace our Academic Regulations, and Policies, Procedures and Codes from time to time in order to ensure that King's operates efficiently for students and meets relevant legal and regulatory obligations, and/or where changes are in the interests of students. Changes to the Academic Regulations, and Policies, Procedures and Codes will be appropriately notified to students via email or the website. Such changes will not affect the content of your Course (see Section 14.2 for provisions concerning changes to Courses).
- 14.1.2 Any changes made under this Section 14.1 will normally come into effect at the start of the next academic year. King's will take all reasonable steps to minimise disruption to students wherever reasonably possible.
- 14.1.3 The updated Academic Regulations, and Policies, Procedures and Codes will be made available on the King's website and may be publicised by other means so that students are made aware of any changes.

14.2 Changes to Courses

- 14.2.1 Once You have received your Written Confirmation, whilst we will use all reasonable efforts to deliver your Course as set out in the Contract, due to the time period between the publication of programme advertising and marketing information and registration on your Course circumstances may arise where we are required to make changes to your Course. Examples of "changes" include changes to the content or structure of your Course, or to the location or method of teaching or assessment, or to the type of award. Examples of where changes may be made or required are (without limitation):-
- (a) where changes are in students' overall interests, for example because of developments in teaching practice or technology, new assessment methods, or where a campus redevelopment or restructuring of King's means that teaching locations change to a different site;
  - (b) where regulatory or government requirements mean that changes must be made to ensure compliance. Examples include changes to how King's is required to operate because of changes to a professional body's requirements, or changes to immigration rules or other laws/regulations;
  - (c) where a key member of staff is no longer available (e.g. through illness or resignation) and suitable alternative teaching or supervision arrangements are provided; and/or
  - (d) due to factors beyond our reasonable control, it may sometimes be necessary to vary the content of the Course or modules or services as described in the Course Information.
- 14.2.2 If King's sponsors You under a student visa, Course changes may have an impact on your sponsorship, and we will provide You with further information. If You wish to change your Course, You should speak to us before taking any action.
- 14.2.3 King's is committed to providing appropriately qualified staff to teach its programmes, but it does not commit to ensuring that any individual will teach on any given programme. Where these members of staff leave King's, take leave or are otherwise become unavailable to teach then they will be replaced by either existing or new staff appointed by King's.

14.3 Closure of Courses

- 14.3.1 Once You have received your Written Confirmation, whilst we will use all reasonable efforts to deliver your Course in accordance with the Contract, circumstances may arise where we are required to close your Course. Examples of where Course closure may be made or required are (without limitation):-
- (a) where a key member of staff is no longer available (e.g. through illness or resignation) and suitable alternative teaching or supervision arrangements cannot be provided. This might be where the member of staff concerned has a particular specialism which cannot be adequately covered by other members of King's staff, or by other resources (e.g., temporary staff) that King's would normally engage in such circumstances;
  - (b) where a teaching location becomes unavailable due to a Force Majeure Event; or
  - (c) there are an insufficient number of students enrolled on the Course meaning the continued running of the Course is financially unviable.
- 14.3.2 If we cancel your Course because there are insufficient number of students enrolled on the Course, You may change to an alternative Course, if available, or claim a full refund for the tuition fee (if applicable). We will not charge an administrative fee for this. It will not be possible to attend an alternative Course on a trial basis.
- 14.3.3 Any Course closure and/or refund application in relation to a Course closure would be considered in accordance with our Programme Closure and Suspension Policy and Student Protection Plan.

14.4 Consequences of changes to Courses or closure of Courses

Changes to Courses before enrolment

- 14.4.1 If we have to change your Course, we will use reasonable efforts to ensure that changes are kept to a minimum, but if we need to make any substantial changes to your Course (as against the commitments made in your Written Confirmation and/or Course Information and as reasonably determined by us) before You enrol at King's, we shall bring the changes to your attention as soon as possible and if You no longer wish to continue on the amended Course, You may either:
- (a) terminate the Contract and/or withdraw your application for the Course without any liability to us for tuition fees and with King's issuing You with a full refund of any and all tuition fees and Sales Tax You have paid; or
  - (b) transfer to another Course (if any) as may be offered by us for which You are qualified.

Changes to Courses or closure of Courses post enrolment

- 14.4.2 Where changes or Course closure is proposed or have to be made for the reasons outlined at Sections 14.2 and 14.3 above, King's will take all reasonable steps to minimise disruption to students (including where your Course is closed and King's is unable to complete delivery of your Course, using reasonable efforts to, with your consent, transfer You to a new course at King's for which You are qualified). You cannot attend an alternative course on a trial basis.
- 14.4.3 In the case of minor changes as reasonably determined by us, we will use reasonable efforts to keep such changes to a minimum and to keep You informed appropriately, for example by email or via notifications on the intranet.
- 14.4.4 In the case of substantial changes as reasonably determined by us, before implementing any such change, we will (where possible and appropriate) consult with students to seek their views on the changes/proposals and any potential alternatives or steps to minimise the impact on students. Changes which are to students' benefit will not normally be "substantial".

- 14.4.5 If we make substantial changes to your Course (as against the commitments made in your Written Confirmation and/or Course Information and as reasonably determined by us) after You have enrolled and You are unhappy with the changes such that You no longer wish to continue to study on your Course, You must notify us of this in writing, following which we may offer You a suitable alternative Course for which You are qualified (at no additional cost to You). If You are unhappy with the alternative Course we offer You or we are unable to offer You a suitable alternative Course, You may end your Contract with immediate effect by sending an email to languagecentreinternal@kcl.ac.uk. The effect of terminating your Contract is that your Course will terminate and You may be entitled to a full or partial refund of tuition fees and Sales Tax You have paid depending on the circumstances and we will act reasonably in making a determination as to whether a full or partial refund is due (with reference to our Student Protection Plan).
- 14.4.6 You should consider your options carefully before terminating your Contract in such circumstances. You may also want to consider other matters such as accommodation and travel costs.

14.5 Liability for acts outside our control

- 14.5.1 King's will do all that it reasonably can to provide your Course as described on our website and in the Course Information or other documents issued by King's to You. Despite taking all reasonable steps to prevent them occurring, and to mitigate their impact, some events outside our reasonable control may mean that we are not able to provide your Course.
- 14.5.2 We shall not be liable to You for any failure in the delivery of the Course arising from matters outside our reasonable control. Such events may include: industrial action which it is not within the capacity of King's to resolve; severe weather, fire, civil commotion, riot, cyber attack, default by third party suppliers or subcontractors, invasion, terrorist attack or threat of terrorist attack, war (whether declared or not), natural disaster, restrictions imposed by government or public authorities, epidemic or pandemic disease (excluding Covid-19) or failure of public utilities or transport systems/networks (a "Force Majeure Event").
- 14.5.3 We would normally expect such Force Majeure Events to be short term and we will contact You to advise of an alternative course of action, where possible. We shall use all reasonable endeavours to mitigate the effect of the Force Majeure Event on your Course and the performance of our obligations and such mitigations may include, without limitation, altering timetables to reschedule postponed classes and delivering classes via a different method.
- 14.5.4 If a Force Majeure Event results in the complete inability to deliver your Course for a continued period of eight (8) weeks or more then You will be entitled to terminate your Contract with immediate effect by contacting languagecentreinternal@kcl.ac.uk or in writing.
- 14.5.5 Should You terminate your Contract pursuant to Section 14.5.4, You may be entitled to a full or partial refund of the tuition fees and Sales Tax You have paid depending on the circumstances and we will act reasonably in making a determination as to whether a full or partial refund is due (with reference to our Student Protection Plan).
- 14.5.6 You should consider your options carefully before terminating your Contract, for example whether You are able to transfer any existing academic credits to an alternative programme and You may wish to contact the Student Advice Service to discuss this. Further information is available here.

14.6 Compensation

14.6.1 Where You terminate your Contract pursuant to this Section 14, You may be entitled to compensation pursuant to our Student Protection Plan.

14.7 Limitation of our liability to You

14.7.1 Nothing in these Terms and Conditions will limit or exclude King's liability:-

- (a) for death or personal injury arising from our own negligence; or
- (b) for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation; or
- (c) in respect of any other liabilities which may not be lawfully excluded or restricted.

14.7.2 King's shall not be liable and expressly excludes liability for:-

- (a) damage to, theft and/or loss of your personal property (including but not limited to personal possessions such as your own IT equipment, bicycles or vehicles) unless caused by our negligence;
- (b) for any injury to a student, financial or other loss or damage resulting from such injury, or for damage to property, caused by any other student, or by any person who is not an employee or authorised agent of King's;
- (c) financial or other consequential loss where such loss or damage is a result of theft, fire or flood;
- (d) any failure or delay, or for the consequences of any failure or delay, in performance of our obligations under these Terms and Conditions, if such failure or delay is due to a Force Majeure Event; and
- (e) any losses which were not foreseeable to You and us when this Contract was formed and losses are foreseeable if they are an obvious consequence of King's breach of this Contract. King's does not accept liability for loss of opportunity or loss of profit.

15.4 Change of language, day, time or campus

- 15.4.1 If You wish to Transfer to a course at the same level in the same language but with a change of day, time or campus, or You wish to transfer to a course in a different language, You may request a Transfer by emailing languagecentreinternal@kcl.ac.uk before the relevant deadline for Transfer requests, set out in Section 15.5.
