

Travel in Europe by train?

Yes you can!

The IGUANA initiative is designed to mitigate the financial challenges associated with train travel from London to various European destinations for conference attendees. It aims to promote sustainable travel and reduce carbon emissions by encouraging train travel over other modes of transportation.

Who can apply:

- * Any IoPPN member with conference registration evidence.

Blog contributions:

- * Write a blog post about your travel experiences.
- * Will be published on IGUANA's project blog.
- * Within one month of travel completion.

Itinerary Sharing:

- * Share funded travel itineraries
- * Will be featured on IGUANA's website and social media.
- * Upon approval of funding and travel completion.

Carbon

Emission Calculation:

- * Calculate and share carbon emissions saved.
- * Highlight the environmental benefits of train travel.

Join the Movement!

Travel sustainably, share your story, and help decarbonise European conference travel with IGUANA.

For more information:

Visit: <https://www.kcl.ac.uk/research/iguana-initiative>

Email: iguana@kcl.ac.uk