

IVA KOCI

iva.koci@kcl.ac.uk ♦ 07389180556 ♦ SE21 London, UK

EDUCATION

PhD/ Doctor of Philosophy in Finance

2017-Ongoing

Kings College London

I am a researcher in sustainable finance investigating how institutional investors incorporate environmental, social and ethical considerations into their investment practice. I am currently finalizing a PhD at King's College London on the topic, having been awarded a full Doctoral Research Scholarship.

MSc Finance

2015-2016

VU University Amsterdam

Awarded full scholarship, merit based

Rabobank Honours Class: Exposed a selected group of master students to recent research topics in banking and finance.

Bachelor of Finance & Accounting

2010 -2013

University of Tirana

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Teaching Fellow

2020-Ongoing

Imperial College Business

Teaching Assistant

2017-Present

Imperial College Business School

On campus delivery of Corporate Finance, Financial & Management Accounting tutorials across masters' & MBA programmes.

Teaching Assistant

2017-Present

King's College London

Deliver Corporate Finance and Ethics & Sustainability tutorials.

Researcher - Fixed Income Department

2016-2017

Robeco Asset Management

- Research on sustainable fixed income investing in global metals and mining.
- Provided inputs and assessment to the senior analyst on global miners.

Associate - Financial Advisory Service

2013-2015

Deloitte Central Europe

- Financial modelling and financial statements analysis for business valuation, feasibility studies, business plans, and fixed assets valuation.
- Seconded in Milan office to work for an infrastructure project finance, including WACC calculation, and preparing industry analysis reports.

Business Development Manager

2012-2014

AIESEC (international youth-run organization)