

Alumni Eligibility Policy

King's College London alumni are eligible to access most of our services for two years following their course completion date. Beyond this point, alumni retain access to our Careers Centre at the Strand Campus but we are unable to provide other services.

Graduated in the last 2 years?

You can still access almost our full range of services, including:

- The Careers Centre at the Strand Campus, including our careers library, resources and takeaway materials.
- King's CareerConnect, enabling you to:
 - book careers advice discussions (careers guidance, application advice, practice interviews) either in person or by phone or Skype.
 - attend our events programme, including careers fairs, networking nights, workshops, employer presentations and a host of other activities.
 - view our exclusive vacancy board, featuring internship, graduate-level and experienced hire positions.
- Our King's Careers & Employability KEATS pages where you'll find information, resources and interactive courses to help you build success (password available on your alumni King's CareerConnect dashboard)
- Subscription services which are licensed for alumni access (please contact us for details).

To access King's CareerConnect you will need to have requested an account or updated your settings to retain access. Visit our website for full details of how to do this and services available.

Graduated over 2 years ago?

King's Careers & Employability is only funded to provide services for recent graduates, up to two years beyond their graduation date. However as an alum, you can still access the following:

- The Careers Centre at the Strand Campus, including our careers library, resources and takeaway materials.
 - Our King's Careers & Employability website and news stories.
 - Subscription services which are licensed for alumni access (please contact us for details).
-

Updated: September 2019

King's Careers & Employability is a member of the Association of Graduate Careers Advisory Services (AGCAS) and as such upholds their codes of best practice in graduate recruitment.