

Confidentiality, Data Protection & Privacy Statement

King's Careers & Employability complies with the terms of The Data Protection Act 2018, incorporating UK General Data Protection Regulations (UK GDPR) and also the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

We also abide by the AGCAS Code of Practice, ensuring that our services and provision is guided by the principles of equality of opportunity, accessibility, impartiality, transparency and confidentiality.

This statement is governed by the below notices, confirming our specific legal basis for the processing of your non-sensitive and sensitive personal data in line with King's College London Data Protection Procedures.

In line with these university-wide policies, it is in our legitimate interests to process a student's personal data for legitimate purposes connected to their education and/or support at King's, including developing services and enhancing the student experience, and as part of our official functions in the public interest.

- King's College London Privacy Notice
- Student Data Collection Notice
- Prospective Student Data Collection Notice
- Alumni and Supporters' Privacy Statement

'Users' and 'applicants' in the context of this statement refers to all users of our services, which includes students, prospective students, alumni, researchers, staff and other internal clients. To view full data held by King's Collect London you will need to submit a request for personal information. Staff found in breach of this agreement will be referred to King's College London's Information Compliance department for the investigation of disciplinary proceedings.

Our services

All staff* employed by King's Careers & Employability undertake mandatory data protection training to ensure we are managing, storing and using data properly and in accordance with University policy and our regulatory requirements.

We collect and process your personal information to deliver careers and employability provision and assist with any enquiry you may log. This will include your personal identifying information (as detailed on your student or contract record with HR) but may also include any sensitive information you provided when you requested assistance, along with any documentation supplied, uploaded or held in our systems (e.g. a CV, application for an award, submission of a placement record)

*This includes staff under contract from:

- King's College London
- The Careers Group, University of London
- King's Talent Bank
- Freelance Careers Consultants employed via King's College London

Appointments & Practice Interviews

- Our appointments, drop-ins and practice interview discussions are held in confidence and information discussed will remain confidential within King's Careers & Employability.
 - Issues may be discussed between staff members in line with professional judgement, enabling us to ensure a full and flexible service to our stakeholders.

- Neither the identities of our users nor the details of our contact with them will be provided to any other individual or organisation, either within King's College London or externally.
- Notes taken by Careers Consultants, Application Advisers and other King's Careers & Employability staff will be appropriate, factual and accessible to all staff within the department for the purposes of ensuring continuity and flexibility of service.
 - Users have access to view these notes at any time from their King's CareerConnect account.
- In certain exceptional circumstances where it is believed to be in the vital interest, King's Careers & Employability staff may be obliged to inform other services within King's or externally without prior consent, where there is a legal or 'duty of care' imperative. Where possible, appropriate discussions will be held to inform the individual that this is the case and gain consent. These circumstances may include:
 - When an individual poses a risk to themselves or others
 - Where a legal obligation exists
 - Where a user has breached the university's regulations or policies.

Hard-copy Documentation

- Career Consultants, Application Advisers and other members of staff may from time-to-time comment on application documents that are sent outside the King's CareerConnect system. In these circumstances, the following actions apply:
 - After use, hard copies are immediately put into the confidential waste system to be disposed of by the University in accordance with waste disposal procedures.
 - Emails containing document attachments or links to document sharing platforms are deleted from all inboxes, sent items, and deleted items immediately after being sent.
 - Documents which have been downloaded are deleted from their storage locations (which may include the local downloads folders, desktop or other file locations) immediately after action has been taken with them.
- In some circumstances, staff may temporarily retain such documents but would always let the user know the reason why and agree a timeframe for deletion via consent.
- Occasionally model documents are retained for use as teaching tools. In these circumstances, staff must retain written consent from the user and anonymise where asked.

King's CareerConnect

King's CareerConnect (KCC) is the online platform which provides access to the majority of our services for our users, including appointments, events, award schemes, job opportunities, exclusive internships, organisation profiles and user records.

- King's Careers & Employability will have lawful basis to access information on relevant data subjects (including, but not limited to students, recent alumni, employers, third-party suppliers, staff and other clients) on the basis of public task outlined in General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR"), Article 6(1)(e).
- This data is submitted to King's College London (as the data controller) as part of the enrolment process or when registering for an account on King's CareerConnect.
- Data will be stored securely on your King's CareerConnect user profile, which is provided by Group GTI (as the data processor).
 - Group GTI has access to the system to investigate support issues only.

- King's Careers & Employability retains overall responsibility for all data within the database and King's Careers & Employability staff manage the system on a day-to-day basis by updating the appointments and event calendars, approving organisation and associated opportunities and making notes on users.
- The University's agreement with Group GTI explicitly defines the security levels that are in place to prevent unauthorised access; it also makes explicit mention that confidential information will not be made available to any third party, and that personal data is processed only within the terms of the contract agreement.
- No special category data is held within the King's CareerConnect system.
- If you enter incorrect log-in details three consecutive times, you will be blocked from accessing the system, and be required to email careers@kcl.ac.uk to reset your account.
- The following statement has been supplied by our data processors, Group GTI:

"GTI provides TARGETconnect (branded "King's CareerConnect" for King's College London), an appointment, opportunity, employer, student and event management system for institution careers and student services. It is a web based centrally hosted system provided for careers and student services.

Institutions are the data owners and maintain and control the data via direct database access and by using the web application. GTI are the data processors and only ever access the system to investigate support issues raised by the Institution.

The databases are stored in a secure datacentre and are only accessed by the Institution and GTI DBS checked employees for maintenance purposes.

Data is not shared with any other system unless with explicit agreement by the Institution and the user."

Group GTI, September 2016

- To function properly, KCC requires some elements of student data to be fed into the system or added by new users. Under the UK GDPR, data subjects have the right of access to your personal data, to rectify, erase (in certain circumstances), restrict processing, object or define data portability.
- You can view the data held by King's Careers & Employability at any time by logging into your account and selecting 'my profile' from the menu.
 - Students & Recent Alumni
 - KCC is only accessible to students, research staff and recent alumni (up to two years following course completion) of King's College London, so the system needs to be able to recognise you as an authentic user; it is also required to enable you to book up for careers appointments and events.
 - The transfer of data is done via a secure, daily feed from a system called SITS, King's corporate student record system.
 - The data includes details such as:
 - Your full name
 - Gender and date of birth
 - Nationality and fee status
 - Student number/'K' number
 - Faculty, department and course
 - Course length, start and end dates

- Student level and year of study
- Home campus
- Contact information (King's or other email address, phone number(s))
- Your stage of career readiness and associated questions form the University enrolment task.
- If you wish to amend this data, you will need to contact Student Services as King's Careers & Employability are unable to edit data within King's CareerConnect which is transitioned from SITS.
- Data will be held for up to two years after you complete your studies at King's (or until your access to King's Careers & Employability is ended). After this time, all data held will be removed and/or deleted.
- Research Staff
 - King's CareerConnect is only accessible to students, research staff and recent alumni (up to two years following course completion) of King's College London, so the system needs to be able to recognise you as an authentic user; it is also required to enable you to book up for careers appointments and events.
 - The transfer of data is undertaken from your HR record in a regular data feed into the system.
 - The data includes details such as:
 - Your full name
 - Gender and date of birth
 - 'K' number
 - Faculty and department
 - Home campus
 - Contact information (King's or other email address, phone number(s))
- If you wish to amend this data, you will need to contact Human Resources as King's Careers & Employability are unable to edit data within King's CareerConnect which is transitioned from SITS.
- Data will be held for up to two years after you complete your contract at King's (or until your access to King's Careers & Employability is ended). After this time, all data held will be removed and/or deleted.
- King's Academic & Professional Services Staff
 - When you register to access King's CareerConnect, you will need to supply us with the following data:
 - Your full name
 - Faculty and department
 - Job title
 - Email address (@kcl.ac.uk)
 - Work phone number
 - Username
 - Password (encrypted)
- Users can amend and/or remove these details at any time by logging into King's CareerConnect. Data will be held for two years after which time we will prompt you to either reset your account or it will be terminated and all data held will be removed and/or deleted.
- Employers & Organisations

- Please see our Statement of Professional Standards/Terms & Conditions for information on the information submitted and how we process your data.
- King's Careers & Employability will not share King's CareerConnect subject data with other external parties for any purposes, other than if you have explicitly provided us with permission to do so. This includes:
 - Other King's College London departments*
 - King's College London Students' Union (KCLSU)
 - Research Councils
 - Employers & Organisations
 - Other Users (e.g. students, alumni, research staff)

*Excluding those areas where we have legal obligation (e.g. Jisc Graduate Outcomes Survey)

- By completing a profile on King's CareerConnect, you grant us permission to use your data to communicate with you information about the products or services we provide as King's Careers & Employability e.g. vacancies, events and appointments.
- Your contact details, including your email(s) and telephone number will also be used to provide further details, reminders and notifications regarding any activity booked through King's Careers & Employability and to request feedback on our services and activities.
- You remain in full control of your information and can adjust your email preferences by logging into your user profile at any time, or clicking the 'update profile' link at the bottom of system-generated emails.
- Users must opt-in to receive targeted mailings and newsletters from us, but core system messages will be related under our legal basis of public task.
- Any changes you request to how your personal information is processed for the purposes of marketing and/or the provision of service updates will be acted on promptly.

Work-based Learning & King's Experience Awards

- In submitting an application/(s) for either a work-based learning programme facilitated by us or a King's Experience Award, you will provide consent that any documents uploaded (CV, cover letter, online form, transcripts etc.) as part of your application(s) may be shared with external parties for the purposes of making decisions regarding your application, namely:
 - King's College London departments and/or faculties
 - External internship or Insights host employers
- Applicants will be prompted and reminded of this at the point of application and requested to tick a box confirming their consent to this transfer.
- Assessments or reports submitted to complete a King's Experience Award or participation in the Student Opportunity Fund are added to a submission repository for use by future participants, available to review by King's staff and students through secure platforms, and which may be shared in literature in hard or soft copy.
- Documents uploaded to King's CareerConnect can be amended and/or removed at any time by users.
- King's Careers & Employability will only transfer personal and/or sensitive category data outside the EEA to organisations that have completed the university's standard Data Protection (Controller-Controller) Template Agreement.

Feedback & Focus Groups

- King's Careers & Employability regularly seek qualitative and quantitative feedback on our services, in order to ensure we are meeting user need.
 - Feedback provided to King's Careers & Employability through online or paper forms, at focus groups, through surveys, interviews or other electronic or physical formats will be anonymised before circulation.
 - Surveys will not actively ask users' names or other identifiable personal data.
- Where users are audio recorded for the purpose of creating a transcription of their comments, this recording will be deleted upon completion of that transcript.
- Throughout the process of capturing, processing and presenting qualitative data, King's Careers & Employability will be mindful of ensuring users are not individually identifiable.
- In any commentary or qualitative feedback users will be identified alpha-numerically, rather than by name ('User A', 'User B').
 - Any personally identifiable information will be removed before circulation. Personally identifiable information in this context would include (but is not limited to) users' names, contact details and user IDs.
- Where a cohort is very small (e.g. a user in a focus group identifies themselves as being on a course which has a very low number of user) the course details will be omitted.
 - In this case we may use faculty level instead, if appropriate. Similarly, where a user identifies themselves as having attended at an event which had very low attendance, we will also remove reference to this event.
- Where feedback is supplied through online systems which link back to a student record (e.g. King's CareerConnect surveys), personally identifiable information will be removed before this data is shared with any parties within beyond King's Careers & Employability.

Photography, Recording & Filming

- King's Careers & Employability reserves the right to record events and workshops, take photographs/video at events held on campus or hosted by us at employer premises or alternative venues.
 - Images/video taken may be used for educational or marketing materials in both print and digital form and available to both internal and external audiences.
 - Testimonials provided as part of an internship reflection or award ceremony may be shared with both internal and external audiences.
 - By attending our events you are agreeing with the disclaimer present on King's CareerConnect which grants King's Careers & Employability permission to undertake photography/filming/audio recording and use these media in our marketing or for further educational usage on our virtual learning environment (KEATS).
 - If, for whatever reason, you wish for an image/video to be removed please contact careers@kcl.ac.uk and this will be actioned within 14 days of receipt of your request.
 - King's Careers & Employability takes no responsibility for photos/video or recordings taken at events and activities run by external parties and/or employers.

External services and functions

Graduate Outcomes Survey (GOS)

- King's College London has a legal obligation to pass details of all recent graduates to Jisc, for the purposes of conducting the Graduate Outcomes Survey \(GOS\) at approximately 15 months after your graduation date under the Further and Higher Education Act 1992.
- The legal basis for processing of this information is conducted on the basis of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Controller outlined in General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR"), Article 6(1)(e) and for statistical and research purposes (see GDPR Article 89).
- The following is taken from the Jisc website (at October 2022):

"On 4 October 2022 the Higher Education Statistics Agency (HESA) merged with Jisc. HESA is now part of Jisc. Jisc is a not-for-profit company limited by guarantee, registered in England (company number: 05747339; charity number: 1149740). Any personal data processed by HESA as controller has now transferred to Jisc under the purposes set out in this collection notice and Jisc is now the controller of this personal data. References to 'HESA Information' in this privacy notice means data controlled by Jisc.

Jisc is data controller of the Graduate Outcomes website and of any processing described on it, unless otherwise indicated. This means it is Jisc who determines the manner and purpose of processing. Under UK data protection laws, we are required to provide you with certain information about who we are, how we process your personal data and for what purposes and your rights in relation to your personal data. This information is provided in this collection notice. It is important that you read this information.

Details of how to exercise your data protection rights can be found in this collection notice. If you have any queries about how your personal data is processed, please contact data.protection@hesa.ac.uk"
