Ethics for Evaluation

Beyond “doing no harm” to “tackling bad” and “doing good”

Edited by Rob D. van den Berg, King's College London, UK, Penny Hawkins, Independent Evaluation Consultant and Nicoletta Stame, Sapienza University of Roma, Italy

Series: Comparative Policy Evaluation

In this book diverse perspectives on ethical guidance in evaluation are untangled and ordered in a theoretical framework focusing on evaluations doing no harm, tackling bad and doing good. Divided into four parts a diverse group of subject experts present a practical look at ethics, utilizing practical experience to analyze how ethics have been applied in evaluations, and how new approaches can shape the future of ethics. Ethics for Evaluation presents evaluators, commissioners of evaluation, policy makers and practitioners with inspiration for an ethical perspective on how evaluation can contribute towards solving problems.
