

King's International Education Research Network Second Meeting

Friday 23rd April 2021

Platform: MS Teams

School of Education, Communication & Society
Faculty of Social Science & Public Policy

Programme

10.00 – 10.10	Welcome and introduction (Beatrice Szczepek Reed, King's College London)
10.10 – 10.40	Jun Teng (Beijing Normal University): Reconstructing the neo-modern curriculum: an investigation on curriculum development in international schools in China
10.40 – 11.30	Sharing ideas: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Getting to know each other: group discussions of the revised KIERN description and how our work relates to it- Aisha Hutchinson and Jenny Driscoll (King's College London): The role of education in relation to child protection in emergency contexts
11.30– 11.45	Break
11.45 - 12.15	Li Xiaomin (University College London): Generating and managing legitimacy: how the OECD established its role in monitoring Sustainable Development Goal 4
12.15 – 12.45	Mukovhe Masutha (University of Johannesburg): Experiences of Black Working-Class Students in South African Universities: a transforming field or a field of interest convergence?
12.45 – 14.15	Break
14.15 – 14.45	Tugay Durak (University of Oxford): A study on the nexus of emigration, adaptation, and interaction in British academia: life stories of Turkish migrant academics working at UK universities
14.45 – 15.15	Donata Puntil (King's College London): Invisible Stories: language teachers' professional journeys
15.15 – 15.30	Break

15.30 – 16.00	Victoria Jack (University of York): Evaluating Transcultural Communication – the student voice
16.00 – 16.30	Michael Salmon, Alexander Heinz, Hannah Bond (King's College London): Online international education – student experience and building learning communities
16.30 – 17.00	Break
17.00 – 18.30	Keynote Vanessa Andreotti and Sharon Stein (University of British Columbia): Education 2048