Further to your recent request for information held by King’s College London, I am writing to confirm that the requested information is held by the university.

Your request

We received your information request on 18 June 2022 and have treated it as a request for information made under section 1(1) of the Act.

You requested the following information:

In the most recent 3 admissions cycles for your Law LLB programme;

- b. How many people who were eligible for a contextual offer were provided with an offer from the university.*
- c. What was the average LNAT score.*

Our response

Please find below a table consisting of data pertaining to the number of applicants eligible for contextual offers in the last 3 cycles, as well as applicants who subsequently received an offer. Please note, data is only provided up to the 2021 cycle, as this is the most recent cycle, we have complete data for. Applicants eligible for contextual consideration are defined by the criteria listed here: <https://www.kcl.ac.uk/study/undergraduate/how-to-apply/contextualised-admissions>

Cycle	Number of applicants	Number of offers
2019	666	108

2021	700	114
Total	1954	393

The information you have requested, under part c, is already reasonably accessible via the Admissions section of the King's College London's website. The information has therefore been withheld under Section 21 of the FOIA ('information reasonably accessible to the applicant by other means').
