Dear Mr [REDACTED],

Request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“the Act”)

Further to your recent request for information held by King’s College London, I am writing to confirm that the requested information is held by the university.

Your request

We received your information request on 16th June 2019 and have treated it as a request for information made under section 1(1) of the Act.

You requested the following information:

For the 2015/16 2016/17 and 2017/18 admission cycle for MA European Studies and MA Politics and Contemporary History:

- 1) The number of offer holders with an upper second class degree
- 2) The number of offer holders with a first class degree

Our response

	2015	2016	2017
First Degree	32	31	25
Upper Second Class Degree	43	44	58

Please note that this analysis includes those offer holders who already hold a qualification, and not those predicted to hold the qualification.

This completes the university’s response to your information request.

Your right to complain

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your information request or feel that it has not been properly handled you have the right to complain or request a review of our decision by contacting the Assistant Director of Business Assurance (Information Compliance) within 60 days of the date of this letter.

Further information about our internal complaints procedure is available at the link below:
http://www.kcl.ac.uk/college/policyzone/assets/files/governance_and_legal/Freedom_of_Information_Policy_updated_Oct_202011.pdf

In the event that you are not content with the outcome of your complaint you may apply to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the internal complaints procedure provided by King's College London.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted at the following address:
The Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
