Dear [REDACTED]

Request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“the Act”)

Further to your recent request for information held by King’s College London, I am writing to confirm that the requested information is held by the university.

Your request

We received your information request on 1 August 2022 and have treated it as a request for information made under section 1(1) of the Act.

You requested the following information:

The overall degree classification for the law undergraduate courses for the 2019/20, 2020/21 and 2021/22 academic years. This would be only regarding the straight LLB 3 year course. Ideally, the data would include how many law students at the university obtained a first class degree, a second class degree (upper and lower) and a third class degree. It would be helpful if this information could be provided in percentages so we can contextualise the results.

Our response

Award Class	Bachelor of Laws in Law
	2019/0	2020/1	2021/2
Bachelor of Laws (Hons)
First Class Honours	16.87%	30.23%	24.50%
Lower Second Class Honours	1.81%	2.91%	2.65%
Third Class Honours	0.00%	0.58%	0.00%
Upper Second Class Honours	81.33%	66.28%	72.85%

This completes the university's response to your information request.

Your right to complain

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your information request or feel that it has not been properly handled you have the right to complain or request a review of our decision by contacting the Assistant Director of Business Assurance (Information Compliance) within 60 days of the date of this letter.

Further information about our internal complaints procedure is available at the link below:

http://www.kcl.ac.uk/college/policyzone/assets/files/governance_and_legal/Freedom_of_Information_Policy_updated_Oct_%202011.pdf

In the event that you are not content with the outcome of your complaint you may apply to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the internal complaints procedure provided by King's College London.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted at the following address:
