

Institute of Psychiatry, Psychology and Neuroscience and Institute of Child health

New developments in child and adolescent mental health

Update course for consultants and senior professionals

9.30 - 4.30 Friday 9 December 2016, Ortus Centre, 82-96 Grove Lane, London SE5 8SN

<http://www.ortusevents.com/>

This course will take place in the beautiful and award-winning Ortus Centre (website above) and will include a delicious lunch. It is designed for senior psychiatrists, psychologists and other professionals delivering mental health services. All are welcome. Cost £150, there are also a number of discounted £75 available for PhD students. To book a place or make an enquiry contact jessie.clarke@kcl.ac.uk p/a to Prof Stephen Scott

PROGRAMME

Abuse and trauma

Prof Sir Robin Murray, FRS

Neglected risk factors for early onset psychosis: the role of child abuse and cannabis use

Dr Andrea Danese

Impact of early abuse on biological systems and later mental health

Dr Patrick Smith

Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder: what's new?

Neurodevelopment

Prof Declan Murphy

What new methods of brain scanning tell us: autism, ADHD and callous-unemotional traits

Dr Paramala Santosh

The art of using medication in developmental neuropsychiatric disorders

Dr Naomi Dale

How to assess children with suspected disabilities: IQ, adaptive functioning, diagnoses and interventions

Mood and Body

Prof Eric Taylor

How to manage Irritability and what works

Dr Dennis Ougrin

How to manage Deliberate Self-Harm: therapeutic assessment and what works

Dr Bruce Clark

How to manage Body Dysmorphic Disorder and what works

Prof Isobel Heyman

How to manage Medically Unexplained Symptoms and what works