

Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence
Research Workshop

'The Scope of Justice in post-Crisis Europe'

Friday 19th September 2014

Room G552 Waterloo Bridge Wing, King's College London
Waterloo Road, London SE1 9NH

|                        |              |
|------------------------|--------------|
| Opening Lecture | 10:00 |
|------------------------|--------------|

Opening remarks: Dr Scott James, Senior Lecturer in Political Economy, King's College London

Dr Albenaz Azmanova, Reader in Social and Political Thought, Brussels School of International Studies: "The EU - from a legitimacy credit crunch to a new social contract"

Followed by Q&A

|                                       |                    |
|---------------------------------------|--------------------|
| Panel 1: State-level Responses | 11:15-12:45 |
|---------------------------------------|--------------------|

Angelo Martelli, European Institute - London School of Economics "Structural Employment Changes and the Disappearing Middle-Class"

Douglas Voigt, European and International Studies, King's College London: "Social Justice Between System and Lifeworld - Competing Perspectives on the Post-Hartz German Labour Market"

Angelos Kontogiannis-Mandros, European and International Studies - King's College London: "Political transformations and economic crisis: An overview of Greek politics in the memoranda era."

Chair: Dr. Aris Trantidis, Teaching Fellow in Political Economy, King's College London

Followed by Q&A

LUNCH BREAK @12:45

Panel 2: EU Institutional Perspective

13:30-15:00

Mikolaj Barczentewicz, School of Law - Oxford University: “Enforced economic solidarity in the EU: institutional implications”

Esin Kucuk, School of Law - Kings College London: “The Limits of Solidarity and Fairness in Asylum: A Legal Perspective”

Dr. Egle Dagilyte, School of Law - Bucks New University: “Judicial protection of social rights via the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights: fighting the multi-headed Hydra?”

Chair: Dr Andrea Sangiovanni, Senior Lecturer in Philosophy, King's College London

Followed by Q&A

COFFEE BREAK @ 15:00

Panel 3: Philosophical Perspectives

15:30-17:00

Fabio Wolkenstein, European Institute - London School of Economics: “Political parties and the challenge of multiple principals.”

Paula Zoido-Oses, European Institute - London School of Economics: “Whose equality? Whose liberty? Europe and the challenge of justice in the face of pluralism”

Laura Lo Coco, School of Law - Kings College London: “Breaking the state: territorial rights and political isolation”

Chair: Dr Adrian Blau, Senior Lecturer in Political Economy, King's College London

Followed by Q&A

COFFEE BREAK @ 17:00

Keynote Lecture

17:30

Professor Philippe Van Parijs, Professor in Faculty of Economic, Social and Political Sciences at the Université catholique de Louvain (UCL) and Directors of the Hoover Chair of Economic and Social Ethics: “Just Europe. Two views”

Followed by Q&A

Drinks Reception

18:30 – 20:00

Attendance is free but registration required. To register follow this link:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/the-scope-of-justice-in-post-crisis-europe-tickets-12559197899>

For further information please visit: <http://www.kcl.ac.uk/innovation/groups/jmce/workshops.aspx>