Liddell Hart Centre for Military Archives/ King's College Archives

King's College London and the Trustees of the Liddell Hart Centre for Military Archives reserve the right to require written evidence of copyright permission prior to accepting substantial requests for copies of diaries, memoirs, reminiscences and private correspondence, or for whole documents. In addition, intention to reference or reproduce any material held at the Archive within any publication in any way, shape or form (including PhD theses) will require advanced permission. Please speak with a member of staff for further details.

Copying charges vary depending on the size and condition of the original. Staff will advise on costs before completing an order and full payment must be made (by cash or card) before any order will be dispatched. Low resolution PDF copies will be produced in the first instance; if you require a higher resolution or printed copies instead, please let a member of staff know.
