

Suggested wording for requesting permission from copyright owners to include material in your thesis

Material written by yourself, but where copyright was assigned to a publisher

I am the author of the following work published by [publisher's name]:

[full citation for the article]

I wish to include this work in the electronic version of my thesis which will be made available from the King's College London website and the British Library EThOS service. These sites are non commercial and openly available to all.

I would be grateful if you could advise if this will be acceptable.

3rd party copyright material

I am contacting you to seek permission to include the following material within the electronic version of my PhD [of MSc/MPhil etc] thesis.

[Full details of the material you wish to include]

If you are not the rights holder for this material I would be very grateful if you advise me who to contact.

The thesis will be made available from the King's College London website and the British Library EThOS service. These sites are non commercial and openly available to all.