
Older People's Health & Social Care LIVING WITH CHOICE & CONTROL? Thursday 7 March 2019

The 11th Annual Joint Conference (CPD certified) from Age UK London and the Health & Social Care Workforce Research Unit (HSCWRU) and Making Research Count (MRC) at King's College London

 @hscwru Hashtag: #olderpeople11

PROGRAMME

- 10.30 Registration, tea & coffee
- 11.00 Chair's welcome
Professor Jill Manthorpe, Director, HSCWRU, King's College London
- 11.10 Should I go or should I stay? Deciding an 'optimal' time for people with dementia to move to a care home
Kritika Samsi, Research Fellow, HSCWRU, King's College London
- 11.40 Mental health in later life - who is giving up?
Trish Hafford-Letchfield, Professor in Social Care, Middlesex University
- 12.10 Human rights and what they mean to people working, living in and visiting care homes
Caroline Green, PhD Student, Institute of Gerontology, King's College London
- 12.40 Lunch (provided)
- 1.30 Supporting older people experiencing gambling-related harm: Insights from practitioners
Stephanie Bramley, Research Associate, HSCWRU, King's College London
- 2.00 Contributing to excellent care for older people: the Older Persons Fellowship
Dr Joanne Fitzpatrick, Reader in Older People's Healthcare & Dr Ivanka Ezhova, Research Associate, Dept of Adult Nursing, King's College London
- 2.30 Speakers panel: questions & discussion
- 3.00 Close

Venue: Henriette Raphael Function Room, Henriette Raphael House, King's College London, Guy's Campus, London SE1 9RT (near London Bridge Station)

Attendance is free, but booking is required. Book your place via:

www.eventbrite.com/e/older-people-and-health-social-care-tickets-52526568380