Practice Development Seminar

A Lot Going On:
The Links Between Forced Marriage, Going Missing and Child Sexual Exploitation

Dr Nicola Sharp-Jeffs
London Metropolitan University

Friday 14 October 2016
10am - 1pm
King’s College London SE1

Nicola Sharp-Jeffs is a Research Fellow in the Child and Women Abuse Studies Unit at London Metropolitan University.

In her Professional Doctorate in the Leadership of Children and Young People’s Services, University of Bedfordshire, she explored the relationship between going missing, child sexual exploitation and forced marriage.

In this seminar, Nicola will discuss significant themes to emerge from her research - and their implications for practitioners.

Places are limited so you will need to book by 30th September 2016. Local authority bookings must be made via your Learning and Development Department.
