

Department of Political Economy

Global Biopolitics
Research Centre

US
University of Sussex
Centre for Global
Health Policy

RISING POWERS POLICY WORKSHOP

Global Biomedical Informatics: Innovation, Governance and Societal Engagement

Funded by UK ESRC Rising Powers Programme 2013-2015

King's College London and University of Sussex.

18 February 2015

PARTICIPANTS (in alphabetical order)

Gemma Buckland-Merrett	Research Fellow in Global Health Policy (International Relations), University of Sussex
Chuck Cook	Scientific Services Manager, European Bioinformatics Institute (EMBL-EBI), Wellcome Trust Genome Campus
Margaret Sleeboom-Faulkner	Professor of Social & Medical Anthropology (Anthropology), University of Sussex
Chiara Garattini	Health Research, Intel Health and Life Sciences – EMEA Innovation Team
Alexander Henzing	Knowledge Transfer Manager, Biosciences & Biotechnology Knowledge Transfer Network
Tim Hubbard	Professor and Director of Bioinformatics, King's Health Partners/KCL Head of Department of Medical & Molecular Genetics, KCL Head of Bioinformatics, Genomics England Honorary Faculty, Wellcome Trust Sanger Institute
William Spooner	Chief Science Officer, Eagle Genomics Ltd.

RESEARCH TEAM

Brian Salter	Professor of Politics and Director of Research, Dept of Political Economy, KCL
Alex Faulkner	Reader in Global Health, Centre for Global Health Policy, University of Sussex
Yinhua Zhou	Research Associate, Dept of Political Economy, KCL
Saheli Datta	Research Coordinator and PhD Candidate, Dept of Political Economy, KCL