What is the Harilela Scholarship?

The Harilela Scholarship has been established by Aron Harilela, a generous donor and friend of King's College London.

The Harilela Scholarship aims to support Hong Kong or China residents planning to study for a three year undergraduate programme in the School of Management and Business. The Scholarship will be awarded based on financial need and academic excellence.

In the academic year 2021-22, two scholarships will be available. The value of each award is £120,000 (£40,000 per year, for three years) to support tuition fees, and living costs, if the scholarship exceeds the fees in any given year.

The winner will be selected on the basis of financial circumstances, a personal statement and academic excellence. Applicants must have firmly accepted a confirmed place to study at King's College London in September 2021.

What does the scholarship offer?

The scholarship is intended to help support the winner with the cost of tuition fees for three years.

Two scholarships will be offered – for students undertaking one of the following courses:
