What is the Li Ka Shing Foundation Lord Sandberg Memorial Scholarship Award?

The Li Ka Shing Foundation Lord Sandberg Memorial Scholarship has been established by the Li Ka Shing Foundation, in memory of Lord Michael Sandberg of Passfield, OBE, CBE, who passed away in 2017 and was considered a true friend of Hong Kong.

The Li Ka Shing Foundation Lord Sandberg Memorial Scholarship has been set up to support permanent Hong Kong residents planning to study a full-time three year undergraduate course at King's.

The scholarship will be awarded on the basis of the applicant's academic record and financial need, the latter of which will be determined by a personal statement. Students from any Hong Kong schools are welcome to apply, but preference will be given to students from a local school.

For 2020-21, King's will be able to offer 2 new scholarships worth £15,000 each. The scholarships will be payable against tuition fees over the three years of your course only as £5,000 per annum. Please note that any residual fee balances will still need to be met by the recipient.
