Our International Management MSc offers a demanding and stimulating course covering global business perspectives. You will gain an in-depth understanding of the different national and cultural contexts in which firms operate while developing your analytical and research skills.

Key benefits

- Located in the heart of London with unparalleled access to research facilities.
- You will be studying innovative modules in a range of disciplines taught by staff who are recognised leaders in their fields.
- King’s Business School has forged close links with outside organisations and regular speakers who will provide you with insights, and up-to-the-minute knowledge of the subject area.

Course details

The International Management MSc offers a demanding and stimulating course, with emphasis placed on providing global capabilities required for business success.

You will study International Business Strategy, Finance and Accounting and Comparative Management; as well as optional modules covering topics such as entrepreneurship, marketing, political economy and human resources.

The course is highly flexible, giving you the opportunity to choose a range of modules and dissertation topics to reflect your interests.

---

2018 entry
Duration: one year
Study mode: full-time

www.kcl.ac.uk/study/postgraduate/taught-courses/international-management-msc.aspx
Teaching
We use lectures, seminars and group tutorials to deliver most of the modules on the course. You will also be expected to undertake a significant amount of independent study.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Lectures, seminars and feedback</th>
<th>Self-study</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Per 15-credit taught module</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The total contact time for each 15-credit taught module is 20-30 hours. These sessions will include lectures, teacher-led and student-led group discussions based on the main areas of study.</td>
<td>Each 15-credit taught module has 120-130 hours of self-guided learning time.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dissertation module</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>You will receive 2 dissertation workshops and 4 hours of one-to-one supervision.</td>
<td>Approximately 592 hours.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Typically, one credit equates to 10 hours of work.

Assessment
The primary method of assessment for this course is a combination of written examinations, coursework, individual or group projects, presentations, case studies and multiple-choice tests.

Regulating body
King’s College London is regulated by the Higher Education Funding Council for England.

Course structure
Courses are divided into modules. You will normally take modules totalling 180 credits.

Required modules
You are required to take:
- Research Methods (15 credits)
- International Business Strategy (15 credits)
- International Finance & Accounting (15 credits)
- Comparative Management (15 credits)
- International Marketing (15 credits)
- Dissertation (60 credits)

Optional modules
In addition, you are required to take 45 credits from a range of optional modules, which may typically include:
- International Entrepreneurship (15 credits)
- Comparative Political Economy (15 credits)
- International Human Resource Management (15 credits)
- International Perspectives on Corporate Governance (15 credits)
- Work and New Technology: International Studies & Perspectives (15 credits)
- Information, Marketing & Technology (15 credits)

King’s College London reviews the modules offered on a regular basis to provide up-to-date, innovative and relevant programmes of study. Therefore, modules offered may change. We suggest you keep an eye on the course finder on our website for updates.

Location
This course is primarily taught at the King’s College London Strand and Waterloo Campuses.

Career prospects
Some of our graduates choose further study at King’s, while others go on to work in a range of fields including management consultancies, the financial sector, and large retail and manufacturing organisations, international NGOs.
Fees and funding

Full-time tuition fees – UK
The UK tuition fees for the 2018–19 academic year are available on the course web page.

Please note that the tuition fees for subsequent years of study may be subject to increases in line with King’s terms and conditions.

Full-time tuition fees – EU
Current regulations allow some students to pay UK tuition fees on the basis of their EU citizenship or residency. Until these eligibility criteria are changed, the EU tuition fee will remain the same as the UK tuition fee.

The UK tuition fees for the 2018–19 academic year are available on the course web page.

Please note that the tuition fees for subsequent years of study may be subject to increases in line with King’s terms and conditions.

Full-time tuition fees – International
The International tuition fees for the 2018–19 academic year are available on the course web page.

Please note that the tuition fees for subsequent years of study may be subject to increases in line with King’s terms and conditions.

Deposit
When you receive an offer for this course you will be required to pay a non-refundable deposit to secure your place. The deposit will be credited towards your total fee payment.

The UK/EU deposit is £500.

The International deposit is £2,000.

For further information, please visit the fees and funding section of our website: www.kcl.ac.uk/study/postgraduate/fees-and-funding/index.aspx

Additional costs
In addition to your tuition fees, you can also expect to pay for:

• books if you choose to buy your own copies
• clothing for optional course related events and competitions
• library fees and fines
• personal photocopies
• printing course handouts
• society membership fees
• stationery
• travel costs for travel around London and between campuses
• graduation costs.

Disclaimer
This PDF was produced in August 2017. Although it was up-to-date at the time it was produced, please make sure you check our website www.kcl.ac.uk/study or contact us directly for the very latest information before you commit yourself to any of our courses.

Contact us
Tel +44 (0)20 7836 5454