This course is designed as a bridge from undergraduate to master's study and may be used as a qualifying course for study at MA level. It offers a flexible structure where you can select modules from Theology, Religion in the Contemporary World and Religion, Philosophy & Ethics.

Key benefits
- Theology & Religious Studies is taught in the very centre of one of the world’s most dynamic cities.
- It is one of the largest and most wide-ranging departments of Theology & Religious Studies in the UK.
- Unparalleled access to specialist libraries, including the Maughan Library at King’s and other religious and cultural resources in central London.
- A supportive educational environment within a department that specialises in the three ‘Abrahamic’ faiths.

Course details
If you would like to study theology and religious studies at a postgraduate level, but do not have the academic background required, our course is perfect for you. It is specifically designed to ease the transition between subjects and provide you with the necessary skills and background to take your study further. You will only need to attend one or two days a week.

Teaching
We will teach you through lectures, seminars and feedback on your assignments. We will also expect you to undertake a significant amount of independent study to compliment our teaching. Typically, one credit equates to 10 hours of work.

Assessment
We will assess your performance through a combination of examinations and coursework. You will also write a dissertation.

Regulating body
King’s College London is regulated by the Higher Education Funding Council for England.
Course structure

Courses are divided into modules. You will normally take modules totalling 120 credits.

Required modules
You are required to take:
- Independent Study Project – Dissertation (30 credits)

If you are a part-time student, you will take this in your second year.

Optional modules
In addition, you are required to take 90 credits from a range of optional modules. At least 60 credits from this total must be taken from level six modules (more advanced) with the remainder coming from modules at either Level 5 or 6.

If you are a part-time student, you will take 60 credits in your first year and 30 in your second from either list.

The lists of modules may typically include:

Level 5
- Modern Islam I: History & Politics (15 credits)
- An Introduction to the Doctrine of the Person of Christ (15 credits)
- Intermediate Greek with Texts (15 credits)
- Religion in Different Social & Geopolitical Contexts: Anthropological Perspectives (15 credits)
- Modern Islam II: Sociological & Intellectual Practices (15 credits)
- Religion, Culture & Society in Reformation Europe (15 credits)
- Ritual in the Old Testament (15 credits)
- Salvation & the City: Christian Faith & the Arts in London (15 credits)
- Applied Ethics (15 credits)
- Philosophy & Film (15 credits)

Level 6
- Hebrew Texts: Prose (15 credits)
- Principles of Systematic Theology (15 credits)
- Women & Gender in the Bible (15 credits)
- Varieties of Religious Experience: Christianity in Britain 1850–1970 (15 credits)
- Contemporary Theology & Philosophy (15 credits)
- Philosophy of Religious Life (15 credits)
- Anthropological Approaches to Religious Innovation & Questions of Being (15 credits)
- Theravada Buddhism (15 credits)
- The English Reformation (15 credits)
- Exploring New Testament Theology I (15 credits)
- Special Questions in Social Ethics (15 credits)
- Contemporary Thought in the Muslim World (15 credits)
- Law & Ethics in the Old Testament (15 credits)
- European Jews & the ‘Orient’ (15 credits)
- The Search for Meaning (15 credits)
- Religion, Politics & Global Media (15 credits)

Religion & Politics in International & Transnational Contexts (15 credits)
Religious Difference: Jewish, Christian & Other Perspectives (15 credits)
New Testament Greek & Exegesis A (15 credits)
The Bible in Modern Imagination (15 credits)
Theological Themes of the Hebrew Bible (15 credits)
‘What is Christianity?’: Patristic Perspectives (15 credits)
Between Revolutions: British Christianity 1689–1860 (15 credits)
Faith and Enlightenment: Philosophies of Religion from Anselm to Kant (15 credits)
Buddhist Ethics (15 credits)
Introduction to Biblical Hebrew (30 credits)

Location
This course is primarily taught on the King’s College London Strand Campus. As a capital city, home to a mix of people of hugely diverse backgrounds, London will offer you tremendous opportunities as a student of religion. Numerous religious groups with very different beliefs, rituals and religious art exist on the department’s doorstep. Our central location means we have access to such unrivalled resources as the National Archives, the British Library, the British Museum, the National Gallery, the Victoria and Albert Museum, and Lambeth Palace Library, to name only a few.

Career prospects
Our graduates have taken the skills they developed with us to excel in a variety of fields, from further study to teaching, journalism and careers in the church.
Fees and funding

Full-time and part-time tuition fees – UK
The UK tuition fees for the 2018–19 academic year are available on the course web page.
Please note that the tuition fees for subsequent years of study may be subject to increases in line with King’s terms and conditions.

Full-time and part-time tuition fees – EU
Current regulations allow some students to pay UK tuition fees on the basis of their EU citizenship or residency. Until these eligibility criteria are changed, the EU tuition fee will remain the same as the UK tuition fee.
The UK tuition fees for the 2018–19 academic year are available on the course web page.
Please note that the tuition fees for subsequent years of study may be subject to increases in line with King’s terms and conditions.

Deposit
When you receive an offer for this course you will be required to pay a non-refundable deposit to secure your place. The deposit will be credited towards your total fee payment.
The UK/EU deposit is £500.
The International deposit is £2,000.
For further information, please visit the fees and funding section of our website: www.kcl.ac.uk/study/postgraduate/fees-and-funding/index.aspx

Additional costs
In addition to your tuition fees, you can also expect to pay for:
• books if you choose to buy your own copies
• clothing for optional course related events and competitions
• library fees and fines
• personal photocopies
• printing course handouts
• society membership fees
• stationery
• travel costs around London and between campuses
• graduation costs.

Disclaimer
This PDF was produced in August 2017. Although it was up-to-date at the time it was produced, please make sure you check our website www.kcl.ac.uk/study or contact us directly for the very latest information before you commit yourself to any of our courses.

Contact us
Tel +44 (0)20 7836 5454