

Pre-University Summer School in the USA

2018 Summer@King's scholarships:

Pre-University Summer School in the USA

King's College London Summer Programmes is offering up to two tuition fee scholarships to students of Brooklyn Friends School in their final three years of high school to get a taste of undergraduate level study on our 2018 Pre-University Summer School in the USA.

The scholarship covers the 2018 tuition fee of £750 (tuition and course certificate of attendance), the application deadline for scholarships is 1st April 2018.

Who are we looking for?

Would you like the opportunity to extend your subject knowledge and find out what it is like to study at university? If you like expressing your thoughts in academic writing, we would love to receive a scholarship application from you.

We are looking for excellent candidates who are passionate about thinking, learning and communicating.

All scholarship applicants need to apply for the programme in the usual way and must fulfil our standard academic criteria.

Scholarship places are available to students in their final three years at Brooklyn Friends School only.

How to apply

- Complete your application for the Pre-University Summer School in the USA via the King's Apply portal. For details on how to submit your summer school application, please follow the instructions in our application guidelines

In addition, you must also do the following:

1. Include the statement "I am applying for a Summer@King's scholarship in the USA" at the top of your Personal Statement section of the application.
2. Create a 3 minute video of yourself answering the following question:

"Why do International Relations matter to the world in 2018?"

You can approach this question in a number of different ways, considering a range of themes, and you may also wish to reflect on the question from perspectives other than your own.

3. Upload the video to Dropbox and add the Dropbox link to the top of your personal statement.
IMPORTANT: Video should be in one of the following formats: .mov or .mp4 or .avi or .wmv.

What are we looking for?

We will be assessing how well argued your answer is and we are looking for videos that express your own original ideas clearly and concisely. We encourage the use of secondary literature, but do remember to reference as appropriate. The artistic quality of the video is not part of the assessment, so please feel free to use a mobile phone or a tablet when recording.

When will I find out?

Successful applicants will be notified week commencing 15th April 2018. Unsuccessful applicants will NOT be contacted.
