

Which Hardship Fund is right for me?

Students who have been affected by COVID

King's Coronavirus Financial Assistance Fund

Deadline: 19th March 2021

Aims to provide support to students who need:

- Help meeting accommodation costs
- Help with living costs due to loss of income/absence of employment
- Help with costs related to online study, such as purchase of laptops

Open to the following students.

- Postgraduate or undergraduate
- Home, EU or International
- Any subject

Apply here.

King's Financial Aid Fund

Deadline: 30th June 2021

Aims to provide support to students who need help meeting specific costs that have been incurred as a direct result of Coronavirus. Costs may include:

- Visa costs
- Exceptional travel costs
- Exceptional quarantine costs

Open to the following students.

- Postgraduate taught or undergraduate
- Home, EU or International
- Any subject

Apply here. Postgraduate research students can apply to our PGR Financial Aid scheme

Students in need of general hardship support

King's Student Funds

Provides financial support to students who are:

- Undergraduate or studying a PGCE
- Home fee status
- Have a household income below £42,875

The following students should apply to a different fund

- Postgraduate students
- EU or International students
- Students on an NHS funded year

Visit here for full details and to apply.

King's Hardship Fund

Provides financial support to students who are:

- Postgraduate
- Home fee status
- Undergraduate with a household income higher than £42,875
- On an NHS funded year

The following students should apply to a different fund

- EU or International students
- Undergraduate students with a household income below £42,875

Visit here for full details and to apply.

International Hardship Fund

Provides financial support to students who are:

- International or EU
- Postgraduate or undergraduate
- Have made financial provision for their studies, but have experienced an unforeseen change of circumstances

The following students should apply to a different fund

- Home students

Visit here for full details and to apply.

Other Sources of Support

Students can only be eligible for one of the King's Student Fund, King's Hardship Fund or International Hardship Fund.

However there may be other hardship funds available for students who are on specific programmes.

King's Medical and Dental Fund

Provides support for students on Medical and Dental programmes. Please see here for full details, and to apply.

School of Global Affairs Hardship Fund

Provides support to students studying an undergraduate or postgraduate course in an academic department within the School of Global Affairs. Please see here for details, and to apply.