European Law

The European Law LLM at King's is renowned as a true leader in postgraduate study. Our students play a key role in our success through direct participation in debates and the exchange of ideas among the academic community here.

Our Centre of European Law is a fulcrum for applied learning, attracting notable experts to a wide range of conferences, seminars and lectures.

Join us here at King's and you will find yourself studying European Law as it happens. Our academics and visiting lecturers are all well respected in the field and you will see first-hand how European and EU law takes shape.

At the cutting edge

Professor Andrea Biondi is programme leader for the specialist LLM in European Law at King's. Here he explains why there has never been a more exciting time to be involved in European Law with us.

European Law and EU Law in particular are now more relevant than ever. At King's you will be studying for an LLM in European Law at one of the most exciting times in EU history. Our faculty is at the cutting edge of current developments while benefitting from a long-standing tradition of expertise in the field. All of which gives our students the most rounded view of European Law possible.

At King's you will not only be taught in a range of areas of EU Law, you will also be part of an EU Law community, built around the Centre of European Law, which was set up as far back as 1975. During your time here you will meet excellent teachers and fellow students but also European judges and Advocates General, EU officials, leading barristers, and many others with a keen interest in EU Law.

The King's LLM in European Law is unrivalled. Our alumni have gone on to work for some of the most prestigious European institutions and legal firms. We are passionate about giving all of our students access to the best opportunities. We are passionate about Europe. And above all we are passionate about European Law. If you share our passion, why not join us at King's?

'I'm still in regular contact with my fellow students and professors from King's. We have a bond that time nor distance can break and going back to King's for a conference or to meet friends always feels like coming home.'

Dissertation essays must be submitted in September, after the May/June examinations.

* Please note that the printed modules are accurate at time of print. These modules are subject to change and we advise all prospective students to view the available module list at the time of application on the website (www.kcl.ac.uk/law).

WHAT OUR STUDENTS AND ALUMNI HAVE TO SAY ABOUT OUR SPECIALIST LLM IN EUROPEAN LAW

'After qualifying as a lawyer in Italy, I felt compelled to broaden my professional knowledge so I decided to pursue a specialist LLM in EU Law. I applied to King's as its academic reputation in EU Law is outstanding; a view echoed by many professionals working in the field.'

Once at King's, I learnt that its reputation is well deserved. I was in the company of outstanding academics and undertaking extremely challenging and interesting modules. The highest academic standards are complemented with a hands-on approach, making the overall experience ideal preparation for returning to the marketplace.'

'Having completed an LLB in English & European Law, I wanted to further specialise in EU Law while also being able to continue my part-time work at a London-based European NGO. The King's LLM in European Law gave me this flexibility.'

I was attracted to the wide variety of EU Law modules offered by the programme, as well as King's affiliation with the well-respected Centre of European Law. This provides students with unique access to EU related extracurricular activities, and has given me the opportunity to attend several important debates and conferences.

Modules are taught by respected experts of EU Law and include a number of guest lectures by practitioners, providing excellent networking opportunities that are invaluable when looking to establish or further a career in the EU institutions, government legal service or academia.

The LLM community at King's is diverse, international, and extremely sociable. All in all, the LLM at King's is certainly a recommended experience for anyone interested in EU Law.'
