

Women's Health Summer School

23rd July – 3rd August 2018

Week one

Monday – 23rd July 2018

09:00 – 10:00 "Room 2.81, Franklin Wilkins Building, Waterloo Campus

Registration for those attending Women's Health Summer School only – students that completed one week in Child's Health will have already registered."

10:30 – 11:15 "Percy Roberts and Aesculapius Room, Gordon Museum, Hodgkin Building, Guy's Campus

Introduction to Women's Health presented by Surabhi Nanda (Consultant in O&G)"

11:15 – 12:00 How to get ahead in O&G/My life as an O&G Consultant by Dr Sonji Clarke

12:00 – 12:30 Meeting with mentors (KCL Medical Students) - Katherine Phipps, Kathy Man, Rebecca Stearns, Dipak Karavadara, Nuwan Dahanayake, Talib Dar

12:30 – 13:30 Catered lunch

13:30 – 17:00 "Gowland Hopkins Lecture Theatre, Hodgkin Building, Guy's Campus

Anatomy session offering a full revision of the female pelvic anatomy offered by Dr Alistair Hunter (Senior Lecturer and Academic Manager of the DR – Department of Anatomy, KCL)

(An overview of the obstetric pelvis - and clinical implications of the female pelvic anatomy with clinical implications, e.g. nerve supply and perception of pain and to include a tour of the department of pro-sections of the female anatomy based on pathology)"

Tuesday – 24th July 2018

Room 1.6, Chantler Centre, Shepherd's House, Guy's Campus

09:00 – 13:00 "Simulated birth teaching by the Research Midwifery Team, Division of Women's Health (Holly Lovell, Vicky Robinson, Mairi Alexander and Rachel Woodcock)

The programme will cover:

- Physiology of birth, benefits of normal birth, birth in the UK, how can we support and promote normal birth?
- Workstations

13:00 – 14:00 Lunch break

14:00 – 15:00 “More than Words” - Communication Challenges for Clinicians by Professor Rick Iedema, Director of the Centre for Team Based Practice & Learning in Health Care

Wednesday – 25th July 2018

Room 1.6, Chantler Centre, Shepherd’s House, Guy’s Campus

09:00 – 10:15 Gynaecology and Obstetric History taking by Dr Louise Webster

10:15 – 10:30 Catered tea break

10:30 – 12:00 Practical simulation teaching in pelvic examination and obstetric palpation by Dr Louise Webster and Dr Alison Ho

12:00 – 13:00 Lunch break

13:00 – 17:00 Ultrasound in O&G Jacqueline Matthews and Emily Skelton

Thursday – 26th July 2018

Clinical attendance

Friday – 27th July 2018

10:30 – 11:15 "Nevin Lecture Theatre, St Thomas’ Hospital

Tutorials offered by mentors on student selected topics – Katherine Phipps, Kathy Man, Rebecca Stearns, Dipak Karavadara, Nuwan Dahanayake, Talib Dar"

11:15 – 12:00 Clinical academic career paths by Dr Roxanne Keynejad

12:00 – 13:00 Lunch break

13:00 – 16:30 "Seminar Room, 10th floor, NW, St Thomas’ Hospital

Journal club – Interactive workshop on how to evaluate research papers

Led by Dr Paul Taylor and supported by Katie Dalrymple (PhD student), Sandra Okala (Post-Doctoral Research Associate), Andy Doel (PhD student)"

Week 2

Monday 30th July – Thursday 2nd August 2018

Clinical attendance

Guy’s Hospital / St Thomas’ Hospital

Friday – 3rd August 2018

09:00 – 13:30 including catered lunch

Nevin Lecture Theatre, South Wing, St Thomas Hospital

Closing day: presentations of work and farewell reception

By Natalie Suff, Lisa Story, Professor Lucilla Poston and Mentors

Students will be asked to individually present to their peers and a panel about a specific topic or experience during the week. Prizes will be awarded, and all students will receive a School of Medicine certificate of participation in recognition of their attendance and participation.